Memo For Tourism Phase 2:

Tourism and Poverty Reduction Anna Spenceley, Dorothea Meyer, 2017-10-02 Over the past decade there have been an increasing number of publications that have analysed and critiqued the potential of tourism to be a mechanism for poverty reduction in less economically developed countries LEDCs This book showcases work by established and emerging researchers that provides new thinking and tests previously made assumptions providing an essential guide for students practitioners and academics This book advances our understanding of the changes and ways forward in the field of sustainable tourism development Five main themes are illustrated throughout the book 1 measuring impacts of tourism on poverty 2 the need to evaluate whether interventions that aim to reduce poverty are effective 3 how unbalanced power relations and weak governance can undermine efforts 4 the importance of the private sector's use of pro poor business practices and 5 the value of using multidisciplinary and multi method research approaches Furthermore the book shows that academic research findings can be used practically in destinations and how practitioners can benefit from sharing their experiences with academic scholars This book was based on a special issue and various articles from the Journal of Sustainable Tourism

Qualitative Methods in Tourism Research Wendy Hillman, Kylie Radel, 2018-01-05 This volume seeks to expose and illustrate new approaches and thinking in qualitative methods that are being developed and implemented in tourism research The contributions bring together various qualitative methods and approaches while also providing suggestions for the juxtaposition of qualitative and quantitative methods in mixed methods research The book has been written with a cross disciplinary approach which provides an insight into the art of research development from business sociology and tourism perspectives The chapters provide readers with a context and practical application examples for each method They present a distinctive opportunity for social researchers from a range of disciplines in particular tourism to examine how to adapt the wide variety of qualitative approaches to their particular research needs
