Why is the federal government so dysfunctional?

R: The federal government could use a good haircut. If it could grow hair, it would look like Cousin Itt - so unkempt and overgrown that no one can tell where one agency ends and another begins.

We've piled on programs we can't afford with money we don't have, supporting people we don't even know. It's long past time to trim the excess and restore some discipline in Washington.

With SNAP benefits expiring and yet another government shutdown, we're reminded how many Americans rely on D.C. for their next meal when it should be neighbors, churches, and communities helping each other first.

L: The federal government is dysfunctional because the current governing party doesn't know how to or want to govern. Despite having a majority in the House and Senate, and holding the Presidency, Republicans in Washington can't agree on anything.

The ongoing government shutdown is a perfect example. Republicans are giddy to double the average American's healthcare costs and kick tens of millions of Americans off their healthcare plans. None of the Republicans' platform or proposals actually help the American people. But because they'd rather play the blame game than take responsibility for their unpopular policies, somehow, it's the Democrats' fault!

If Senate Republicans are so eager to pass their draconian policies, they can lower the threshold from 60 votes to 51 and do so.

Republican inaction isn't just limited to the Senate- the House hasn't been in session in weeks because Republican leadership wants to avoid votes on the Epstein Files and increased calls to swear in a member-elect from Arizona elected almost two months ago.

Their opposition to transparency in the Epstein case has been extremely troubling. Instead of allowing a simple up-down vote on the release of the Epstein Files, House Republicans would rather deprive the people of Arizona representation in Congress and play partisan politics with the justice that survivors deserve.

When Democrats are in charge, they are responsible for many great American programs. The New Deal following the Republican-caused Great Depression, consumer protections and financial regulations following the Republican-caused Great Recession, and historic investments in infrastructure in 2021 following years of Republican-led opposition all are examples where Democrats stepped up to help the American people when Republicans took a step back.

What can we do about it?

R: Fixing Washington starts with reclaiming responsibility. Congress should slash redundant agencies, return power to the states, and require balanced budgets as most state governments already do.

But the real change begins at home with local churches, charities, and citizens stepping up, so dependence on Washington isn't a way of life. The Catholic principle of subsidiarity teaches that problems should be solved at the most local level capable of addressing them. That's not just good theology, it's good governance. We don't need a bigger government; we need stronger communities.

L: Elect Democrats in 2026 and 2028.

Who is your favorite 20th Century president?

R: My favorite 20th-century president is Calvin Coolidge, a fellow Western Massachusetts resident who assumed the office in the wake of Harding's death. In his term, he embodied temperance, humility, and a firm belief that government works best when it knows its limits.

Coolidge's hands-off economic approach helped usher in a period of prosperity. However, he was far from apathetic in his policy, as he quietly championed civil rights for Native Americans and opposed the Ku Klux Klan at a time when it was politically risky to do so.

While I admire Reagan's quick-witted humor and anti-Communist resolve, Coolidge's prudence and moral firmness make him, in my view, the most underrated leader of the century.

In an age of grandstanding politicians and endless spending, "Silent Cal" reminds us that character and restraint are virtues worth rediscovering.

L: My favorite president of the 20th century is the 33rd President, Harry Truman. President Truman is often glanced over, sandwiched in the order between FDR and Eisenhower, but had arguably had just as strong an impact on the nation and the world as them.

He gave the order to drop the atomic bombs on Hiroshima and Nagasaki, leading to the end of World War II. In the aftermath of the war, President Truman implemented the Marshall Plan to rebuild the ruined economies of Western Europe and prevent their fall to communism.

In 1952, he issued an executive order desegregating the armed forces and established a commission on civil rights, whose recommendations were passed into law under subsequent presidents.

He had much of these successes despite opposition from what he termed a "Do Nothing" Congress, which sounds just a little too on the nose for our contemporary Congress.
