Maria Callas Stelios Galatopoulos, 1998 An authoritative and fully illustrated biography of one of the great icons of the 20th century assesses her defining art and reveals in her own words the woman behind the triumphant controversial and tempestuous La Divina Illustrations

Vocal Apparitions Michal Grover-Friedlander, 2014-12-25 Cinema and opera have become intertwined in a variety of powerful and unusual ways Vocal Apparitions tells the story of this fascinating intersection interprets how it occurred and explores what happens when opera is projected onto the medium of film Michal Grover Friedlander finds striking affinities between film and opera from Lon Chaney's classic silent film The Phantom of the Opera to the Marx Brothers A Night at the Opera to Fellini's E la nave va One of the guiding questions of this book is what occurs when what is aesthetically essential about one medium is transposed into the aesthetic field of the other For example Grover Friedlander's comparison of an opera by Poulenc and a Rossellini film both based on Cocteau's play The Human Voice shows the relation of the vocal and the visual to be surprisingly affected by the choice of the medium Her analysis of the Marx Brothers A Night at the Opera demonstrates how as a response to opera's infatuation with death cinema comically acts out a correction of opera's fate Grover Friedlander argues that filmed operas such as Zeffirelli's Otello and Friedrich's Falstaff show the impossibility of a direct transformation of the operatic into the cinematic Paradoxically cinema at times can be more operatic than opera itself thus capturing something essential that escapes opera's self understanding A remarkable look at how cinema has been haunted and transformed by opera Vocal Apparitions reveals something original and important about each medium

Feasting & Fasting in Opera Pierpaolo Polzonetti, 2021-11-11 Feasting and Fasting in Opera shows that the consumption of food and drink is an essential component of opera both on and off stage In this book opera scholar Pierpaolo Polzonetti explores how convivial culture shaped the birth of opera and opera going rituals until the mid nineteenth century when eating and drinking at the opera house were still common Through analyses of convivial scenes in operas the book also shows how the consumption of food and drink and sharing or the refusal to do so define characters identity and relationships Feasting and Fasting in Opera moves chronologically from around 1480 to the middle of the nineteenth century when Wagner's operatic reforms banished refreshments during the performance and mandated a darkened auditorium and absorbed listening The book focuses on questions of comedy pleasure embodiment and indulgence looking at fasting poisoning food disorders body types diet and social ethnic and gender identities in both tragic and comic operas from Monteverdi to Puccini Polzonetti also sheds new light on the diet Maria Callas underwent in preparation for her famous performance as Violetta the consumptive heroine of Verdi's La traviata Neither food lovers nor opera scholars will want to miss Polzonetti's page turning and imaginative book

Opera George Henry Hubert Lascelles Earl of Harewood, 1999 People of Today , 2006 The Bulletin , 1999 La Scala West Ronald L. Davis, 2000 In this lavishly illustrated volume Ronald L Davis tells the story of a regional opera company that won international recognition with dazzling productions during its first season and sustained the attention of opera lovers around the world for nearly two decades In the late 1950s in Dallas Texas general manager Lawrence Kelly and artistic director Nicola Rescigno envisioned gorgeous music for the eye and ear Their intent was to breathe new life into the traditional Italian and French repertory and to spice it with offerings of American premieres of lesser known works Although the fledgling company's seasons were short they were production for production of a quality to match those staged in the finest opera houses in the world In 1958 Maria Callas the company's first prima donna gave a towering performance as Violetta in Verdi's La Traviata and that same year in her only American performances of Medea gave an interpretation of the title role worthy of Euripides The Dallas Opera's roster of American debuts in its initial decades includes Joan Sutherland Jon Vickers Teresa Berganza Placido Domingo and Montserrat Caball In addition to recruiting the best singers from around the globe Kelly and Rescigno imported an upcoming generation of European stage designers and directors among them such now recognized giants as Franco Zeffirelli and Peter Hall Long before most opera management gave much attention to lighting a stage creatively they scouted the contemporary Broadway theater to enlist the talents of such lighting designers as Jean Rosenthal and Tharon Musser Supported by a small group of civic minded business leaders the Dallas Opera during its early seasons was perhaps as close as the United States has ever come to having court opera a modern extension of the jewel box operas performed in the palaces of Louis XIV and Catherine the Great Rather than imitate what patrons could see at the Metropolitan in New York Kelly and Rescigno looked to Europe and especially to Italy and its singers and artists from the world renowned opera house in Milan With their visionary fervor and meticulously crafted productions Lawrence Kelly and Nicola Rescigno launched La Scala West a regional opera company that set the standard for many companies in the decades to come
