From Submarines to Suburbs Cynthia Lee Henthorn,2006 Using documentary evidence in the form of numerous advertisements of the time From Submarines to Suburbs is a fascinating analysis of the way corporations made the successful switch from supporting the war effort to building on the peacetime prosperity by re tooling the patriotic fervor of the home front

Understanding Linguistic Prejudice Gladis Massini-Cagliari,Rosane Andrade Berlinck,Angelica Rodrigues,2023-03-30 This book discusses linguistic diversity linguistic prejudice and language variation and change from a Global South perspective by analyzing Brazilian Portuguese Brazilian Sign Language LIBRAS and indigenous languages spoken in Brazil It brings together studies and reflections on linguistic prejudice and social discrimination based on data and examples from Brazil and aims to bridge the gap between academic findings and popular notions related to linguistic diversity to promote language diversity and fight linguistic intolerance Chapters in this volume present contributions to understand the origins and motivations of linguistic prejudice and foster awareness of entrenched opinions regarding linguistic diversity The first part of the book brings together chapters analyzing basic sociolinguistic questions concerning linguistic prejudice based on theoretical discussions and qualitative research The second part is composed of chapters that analyze linguistic prejudice in Brazil in major communities that speak Brazilian Portuguese varieties and minor communities that speak native and sign languages Understanding Linguistic Prejudice Critical Approaches to Language Diversity in Brazil will be a valuable resource for researchers in sociolinguistics interested in language diversity language justice and language policy It will also be of interest to sociologists anthropologists and other social scientist interested in the relationship between language diversity equity and inclusion

Race, Class, and the Struggle for Neighborhood in Washington, DC Nelson F. Kofie,2015-11-17 First published in 1999 This case study examines how low income residents community leaders the Nation of Islam and the police joined forces to close down an open air drug market The research shows how a previously stable black community became severely destabilized and documents the efforts of community members to mobilize their neighbors around home ownership tenant empowerment and jobs Adopting a holistic perspective the author examines tensions between opportunities and constraints dictating the aspirations of individuals the historical factors influencing the course of events in their community and the agenda of various government and private agencies This three year

ethnographic study observed the community's rejuvenation and the drastic reduction in drug related crimes antagonism between the police and the Nation of Islam and the demise of the HUD funded tenants home ownership initiative Ph D dissertation George Washington University 1996 revised with new preface introduction bibliography and index Face Value Robin Lakoff, Raquel Scherr, 2022-11-30 First published in 1984 Face Value confronts the pervasive power of beauty through art and literature as well as interviews with men and women with varying perspectives on the subject The topics covered range widely the history of beauty from the Greeks to the present the pathology of beauty how women have been willing to harm themselves mentally and physically to achieve beauty the language we use to speak of beauty and its implications our attitudes towards beauty as examined by psychologists beauty and ethnic identity men and beauty The authors present in fact a redefinition of beauty enabling both women and men to enjoy it in themselves and in others while discarding the sex role stereotypes that have governed the definition of beauty in the past With a new preface that explores the gaps created by time in the book's discourse this book will be of interest to students of linguistics gender studies women's studies cultural studies sociology and anthropology 2020 the Campaign Chronicles JD Foster, 2021-02-17 The 2020 campaign began with the 2016 election of Donald J Trump and effectively rendered a verdict on his presidency The Democartc Party sifted through a small army of worthies to defeat Trump and in former Vice President Joe Biden they found their champion Biden claimed the nomination following a phoenix like rise propelled by a miraculous South Carolina primary victory Backed by the party establishment and the mainstream media Biden's weak campaign proved sufficient by a handful of votes in a handful of states and leaving Biden with little mandate other than to avoid being like Trump The story of the 2020 election is in part a story of America and the Trump presidency a stormy marriage of highs and lows shaped by contrived investigations into Russian government interference a failed impeachment a welcomed intolerance for sexual harassment the exposure of deep racial divisions highlighted by widespread and often violent rioting accompanied by a re examination of the role of the police a strong economy until crushed by the coronavirus pandemic and then the pandemic tragedy itself The Trump presidency's four years astounded for better or for worse depending on point of view This book chronicles the 2020 election and thus the events that shaped the election over the course of four years written contemporaneously to capture the flavor of the moment praising and criticizing Trump and his many antagonists in equal measure Those enamored of the former president will find succor and outrage as will those who delighted in his defeat Those seeking to understand what happened will find the reading interesting infuriating and perhaps in places illuminating
