Midnight Lantern New And Selected Poems:

Midnight Lantern Tess Gallagher, 2012-03 Tess Gallagher is one of America's leading poets. In Midnight Lantern she collects her indispensable work from forty years of writing poetry along with an ample new section written in the west of Ireland. Included in this generous book are Gallagher's signature nocturnes for the changing Pacific Northwest for her tough childhood and for her late husband Raymond Carver and others. Her challenging new work confronts a tumultuous century's worth of art warfare and illness while certifying the stubborn resilience of poetry and love. Astonishing, insightful, mischievous, an inimitable seeing into experience. Midnight Lantern is the essential book by a poet in the prime of her power. Gallagher's poems resound with exquisite beauty and remind me once more how it is not subject but its rendering that redeems and uplifts. Boston Globe. Tess Gallagher's is perhaps the most deeply moving and spiritual and intensely intelligent poetry being written in America today. William Heyen. It is impossible to read Tess Gallagher's poems without being drawn into their mesmerising rhythms and convinced of the rightness of her intense yet unforced images. Joyce Carol Oates. She is outstanding among her contemporaries in the naturalness of her inflection, the fine excess of her spirit and the energy of her dramatic imagination. Stanley Kunitz.

The Best of Poetry in Motion Alice Quinn, 2017-09-26 Poems once in motion continue to move their readers. And what an imaginative variety of poetic delights is offered here. Billy Collins. It would have pleased Walt Whitman that poet of urban motion to envision his words coursing by electrified rail through a diverse global city of 8 million souls. Since 1992 with the presentation of an excerpt from Walt Whitman's Crossing Brooklyn Ferry the Poetry in Motion program co-sponsored by MTA Arts Design and the Poetry Society of America has brought more than 200 poems in whole or in part before the eyes of millions of subway and bus riders offering a moment of timelessness in the busy day. The poems are by an eclectic mix of writers from Sappho and Sylvia Plath to W. H. Auden, Rita Dove, Seamus Heaney, Nikki Giovanni, Patrick Phillips and Aracelis Girmay. Each of the 100 poems gathered here has in sixteen lines or less the power to enliven the quotidian, provide nourishment for the soul and enchant even the youngest among us.

The Oxford Companion to Modern Poetry in English Jeremy Noel-Tod, Ian Hamilton, 2013-05-23 This impressive volume provides over 1,700 biographical entries on poets writing in English from 1910 to the present day, including T. S. Eliot, Dylan Thomas and Carol Ann Duffy. Authoritative and accessible, it is a must-have for students of English and creative writing as well as for anyone with an interest in poetry.

The Pen and the Bell Brenda Miller, Holly J. Hughes, 2012 Thinking Continental Tom Lynch, Susan Naramore Maher, Drucilla Mims Wall, Oliver Alan Weltzien, 2017-01-01 In response to the growing scale and complexity of environmental threats, this volume collects articles, essays, personal narratives and poems by more than forty authors in conversation about thinking continental, connecting local and personal landscapes to universal systems and processes to articulate the concept of a global or planetary citizenship. Reckoning with the larger matrix of biome, region, continent, hemisphere, ocean and planet has become necessary as environmental challenges require the insights not only of scientists but also of poets humanists and social scientists Thinking Continental braids together abstract approaches with strands of more personal narrative and poetry showing how our imaginations can encompass the planetary while also being true to our own concrete life experiences in the here and now
