Pioneers & Icons of Australian Motorsport Bill Pearson, 2025-02-21 The author has captured in words and lavish illustrations many of his own that have never been seen before the stories of over one hundred men and women whose personal motor racing journeys paved the way to establish and explode this sport They did so both locally and overseas showing that Aussies were as good as the world's best when it came to not only skill behind the wheel but also in the design and manufacture of the fastest cars and in organising events of the highest level and regard Most of these names are extremely well known by all Aussie petrol heads household names admired around any backyard barbecue Just the mention of their names brings nods of respect But you will additionally read accounts of some very significant lives and racing achievements you previously knew nothing about and some are quite simply amazing There's our first woman to race commercially overseas Just how she got there is incredible Then you share the exploits of an illegal inter capital record holder who went to New Zealand to break the land speed record the farmers whose sons and grandsons became racing dynasties and the home grown mechanics and car builders whose designs obliterated all competition Strap yourself in and hang on It's gonna be a bloody wild ride

Postcolonial Automobility Lindsey B. Green-Simms, 2017-10-24 For more than a century cars have symbolized autonomous unfettered mobility and an increasingly global experience And yet they are often used differently outside the centers of global capitalism This pioneering book considers how through the lens of the automobile we can assess the pleasures dangers and limits of global modernity in West Africa Through new and provocative readings of famous plays novels and films as well as recent popular videos Postcolonial Automobility reveals the surprising ways in which automobility in the region is at once an everyday practice an ethos a fantasy of autonomy and an affective activity intimately tied to modern social life Lindsey B Green Simms begins with the history of motorization in West Africa from the colonial era to the decolonizing decades after World War II and addresses the tragedy of car accidents through a close reading of Wole Soyinka s 1965 postindependence play The Road Shifting to screen media she discusses Ousmane Sembene s Xala and Jean Pierre Bekolo s Quartier Mozart and reviews popular low budget Nollywood films Finally Green Simms considers how feminist texts rewrite and work in dialogue with the male centered films and novels where the car stands in for patriarchal power and capitalist achievement Providing a unique perspective on technology in Africa one refusing to be confined to narratives of either underdevelopment or inevitable progress and covering a broad range of interdisciplinary material Postcolonial Automobility will appeal not only to scholars and students of African literature and cinema but also to those in postcolonial and globalization studies Daily Graphic Elvis D.
