Wandering a Gendered Wilderness Isabel Mukonyora, 2007 Original Scholarly Monograph Writing Now. More Stories from Zimbabwe Irene Staunton, 2005-06-15 The sequel to the award winning Writing Still this new collection of stories paints an engaging and sometimes challenging picture of contemporary life and concerns in Zimbabwe Like its predecessor Writing Now combines well established writers Chinodya Mupfudzi Eppel Chingono with several new voices Although the stories emerge from lives of economic hardship and privation their tone is by no means uniformly Zimbabwean writers continue to demonstrate that sharp humour and surreal fantasy can grow from the bleakest of roots Student Encyclopedia of African Literature Douglas Killam, Alicia L. Kerfoot, 2007-12-30 African literature is a vast subject of growing output and interest Written especially for students this book selectively surveys the topic in a clear and accessible way Included are roughly 600 alphabetically arranged entries on writers genres and major works Many entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Africa is a land of contrasts and of diverse cultures and traditions It is also a land of conflict and creativity The literature of the continent draws upon a fascinating body of oral traditions and lore and also reflects the political turmoil of the modern world With the increased interest in cultural diversity and the growing centrality of Africa in world politics African literature is figuring more and more prominently in the curriculum This book helps students learn about the African literary achievement Written expressly for students this book is far more accessible than other reference works on the subject Included are nearly 600 alphabetically arranged entries on authors such as Chinua Achebe Athol Fugard Buchi Emecheta Nadine Gordimer and Wole Soyinka major works such as Things Fall Apart and Petals of Blood and individual genres such as the novel drama and poetry Many entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography F & S Index United States Annual, 2006

Natural Resource-Based Conflicts in Rural Zimbabwe Joshua Matanzima, Patience Chadambuka, Kirk Helliker, 2024-08-02 This book investigates the range of conflicts over land and other natural resources in contemporary Zimbabwe considering the different forms these conflicts take and the ensuing outcomes Zimbabwe is a country rich in natural resources including land wildlife minerals and water resources These resources are integral to the formal and informal livelihoods of most Zimbabweans as well as supporting many key industries Wildlife land and water resources are also embedded in indigenous knowledge systems religious beliefs and rituals in many rural communities forming an important part of people's identity and sense of belonging However this book demonstrates the ways in which rural communities are being denied access to these resources and being displaced by extractive companies and the government Their response is often to turn to violence to try to reclaim their lands Drawing on original empirical research from different conflicts across Zimbabwe the book also considers the issue in the context of problems such as climate change human wildlife conflicts and politico economic crises This book will be useful to policy makers students conservationists and academics across the fields of sociology human geography development political science and environment studies

Complicity and Responsibility in Contemporary African Writing Minna Johanna

Niemi, 2021-05-03 This book investigates the many ways in which contemporary African fiction has reflected on themes of responsibility and complicity during the postcolonial period Covering the authors Ayi Kwei Armah Tsitsi Dangarembga Nuruddin Farah Michiel Heyns and J M Coetzee the book places each writer's novels in their cultural and literary context in order to investigate similarities and differences between fictional approaches to individual complicity in politically unstable situations In doing so the study focuses on these texts representations of discomfiting experiences of being implicated in harm done to others in order to show that it is precisely during times of political crisis that questions of moral responsibility and implicatedness in compromised conduct become more pronounced The study also challenges longstanding western amnesia concerning responsibility for historical and present day violence in African countries and juxtaposes this denial of responsibility with the western literary readership's consumption of narratives of African suffering The study instead proposes new reading habits based on an awareness of readerly complicity and responsibility Drawing insights from across political philosophy and literary theory this book will be of interest to researchers of African literature postcolonial studies and peace and conflict studies The EuroQol Group after 25 years Richard Brooks,2012-08-22 The EuroQol Group first met in Rotterdam in May 1987 determined to develop a standardised non disease specific instrument for valuing health related quality of life The book traces the activities of the Group over the next 25 years The instrument constructed eventually named the EQ 5D was translated into many languages and used in a wide range of countries and settings The book describes how the instrument s descriptive system was determined how translation and language issues were handled and how valuations were provided Recent developments in particular a 5 level version EQ 5D 5L and a youth version EQ 5D Y are covered The history of the institutional and administrative framework within which the Group operated is also treated
