Markets In Oaxaca:

Markets in Oaxaca Scott Cook, Martin Diskin, 2014-11-11 Markets in Oaxaca is a study of the regional peasant marketing system in the Valley of Oaxaca Mexico. It relates the marketing system to other aspects of the regional economy to neighboring regions and to the Mexican national economy. Combining ethnographic theoretical and regional analyses, it suggests new directions in the fields of peasant and development studies. Contributors to the volume describe the operation and nature of several marketplaces in the region, analyze village-based artisan production and various specialized economic roles, particularly the role of traders, and describe the operation of several total regional marketing systems. The editors then consider their findings against the background of political, economic, and social structures from the pre-Conquest period to the present. In their conclusion, the editors find the regional peasant economy to be responsive both to the influence of the urban metropolitan sector on the one hand and to its own indigenous structural integrity and internal dynamism on the other. In addition to the editors, the contributors to Markets in Oaxaca are Ralph L. Beals, Richard L. Berg Jr., Beverly Chi, Herbert M. Eder, Charlotte Stollmaker, Carole Turkenik, John C. Warner, Ronald Waterbury, and Cecil R. Welte. Their essays combine analyses of the elements of the system within a comprehensive theoretical framework. Together, they present a complete and integrated view of a peasant economy. Informal Markets in Developing Economies Shrijay Devaraj Urs, Harvey Demaine, 1989 Markets and Marketing Society for Economic Anthropology (U.S.). Meeting, 1985-04-19 This collection of 15 articles drawn from the Society for Economic Anthropology's 1984 meeting is divided into four topics: central place analysis of marketplace systems, economic behavior in market contexts, markets in economic development, and markets in historical perspective. Co-published with The Society for Economic Anthropology Mexican Political Biographies, 1935-2009 Roderic Ai Camp, 2011-10-01 This fourth edition of Roderic Ai Camp's highly respected Mexican Political Biographies is an updated comprehensive biographical directory of leading state and national politicians in Mexico covering the years 1935-2009. The original edition published in 1976 was the first and only comprehensive biographical work on contemporary political figures in any language and served as the prototype for the Mexican government's brief foray into its own official biographical directory. The Mexican Supreme Court has cited every biography of justices in the third edition as the basis of its biographies. In the late 1980s, with updates of the existing biographies and appendices plus almost 1,000 additional biographies, this fourth edition now features close to 3,000 entries and serves as a unique resource list of the chronological occupants of all leading national political posts. The need for such information has become even more pronounced since Mexico's political transformation from a semi-authoritarian to a democratic model. This latest edition allows readers access to information about Mexican politicians into the new century and, like its earlier versions, will be a valuable tool for government officials, journalists, historians, social scientists, the business community, and students. Finally, it includes a detailed bibliographic essay that identifies and explains the significance of biographical sources and has been enhanced by
