This is American history told through the stories of an atypical for Utah region Castle Valley is roughly conterminous with two counties Carbon and Emery which together formed a rural industrial enclave in a mostly desert environment behind the mountain range that borders Utah's principal corridor of settlement In Castle Valley coal mining and the railroad attracted diverse multiethnic communities and a fair share of historic characters from Butch Cassidy who stole its largest payroll to Mother Jones who helped organize its workers against its mining companies Among the last major segments of the state to be settled it was also a generally poor region that stretched the capabilities of people to scratch a living from a harsh landscape The people of Castle Valley experienced complex unusual combinations of both social cohesion and conflict but they struggled through poverty labor disputes major mining disasters and other challenges to build communities whose stories reflected the historical course of the nation as a whole In order to convey her subject's both unique and representative qualities Nancy Taniguchi has written an epic history that is not just local history but American history written locally Nancy J Taniguchi who lived for thirteen years in Castle Valley and was previously on the faculty of the College of Eastern Utah in Price is professor of history at California State University Stanislaus She is the author of numerous published articles in mining legal women's western and Utah history and of one book Necessary Fraud Progressive Reform and Utah Coal      Horseless Carriage Gazette ,1981      The National union catalog, 1968-1972 ,1973      Experiencing the Unfamiliar Reuben Marc Schwartz, 1994      AB Bookman's Yearbook ,1972      The Midland Trail National Midland Trail Association, 1969      The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints ,1968      Uniform Trade List Annual ,1977
