 John Dendiau, 1977 Maurice Ravel Victor Seroff, 1953 This biography of Maurice Ravel is the result of several years penetrating research not only on the influences and meanings of Ravel's particular genius but on the carefully guarded personal life of the great French musician It is the only study of the modern French master available in English Although born in the Basque village of Ciboure near the border of Spain Ravel was raised in the Montmartre district of Paris and became the epitome of the sophisticated elegant Parisian He was a fastidious and sartorially resplendent little man he was but five feet tall who aside from his music delighted in children in Parisian night life and in travels to Spain Africa England and the United States But Ravel the composer studied and worked and developed as though oblivious of the ferment his division of the laws of harmony caused A mild man he nevertheless perpetrated violent reactions and caused three famous affaires Ravel The first was his unfair exclusion from the Prix de Rome contest The second the celebrated newspaper controversy of Ravel and Debussy is available here in book form for the first time Ravel's third affaire was his sensational refusal of the Légion d'Honneur Ravel's undeniable gifts as a musical innovator were inspired by his teachers Fauré and Satie and developed during one of the most artistically productive and revolutionary periods of the twentieth century Compared to many composers Ravel's musical output was small He was an extremely careful and painstaking worker but his working habits did not curb his own inventiveness nor affect his infinite versatility A list of Ravel's compositions is both distinguished and varied ranging from small pieces for the piano Pavane pour une Infante d'Espagne the three pieces that comprise the Gaspard de la Nuit to piano concertos one of the two being the miraculous Concerto for the Left Hand Alone art songs in the
