

Notre modernité est de plus en plus marquée par des phénomènes de déplacement, d'exil et d'exclusion de familles entières. Comment s'évader des certitudes identitaires afin de devenir des sujets de la multitude et du déplacement ?

Cet enjeu importe tant à la psychanalyse qu'à l'anthropologie. Il déplace ces deux disciplines au-delà du culturalisme. Le dialogue est urgent entre cliniciens et anthropologues. L'anthropologie psychanalytique contenue chez Freud et même Lacan est-elle actuelle ? Les mythes psychanalytiques ont-ils une pertinence ? Le mythe freudien est-il universel ?

Ce livre expose d'abord l'histoire des rencontres entre les deux disciplines, les filiations et les tensions qui ont marqué leurs échanges. Il situe les moments les plus vifs des débats qui explosèrent autour de l'enjeu très controversé que représente la création de dispositifs thérapeutiques spécialisés pour les dits « migrants ».

C'est sur le projet d'une construction de l'anthropologie clinique que se termine ce livre. L'auteur illustre son propos par le témoignage de plusieurs fragments de cures menées avec des personnes et des familles provenant du Maghreb, des Antilles ou de l'Afrique de l'Ouest, que ce soit à Paris, au Sénégal ou au Mali. The Hypermodernity Factory Anais Djouad, 2025-10-21 The digital regime and its biotechnological characteristics of hypermodernity are giving rise to unprecedented living and working conditions. Relational inter-individual and exchange systems are being transformed. Technologies bring new ways of communicating, speaking, writing, organizing and controlling tasks. They are explicit but their reticularities also operate invisibly underground. However, they define powerful norms for work. Beyond the digital object at the heart of the computerization process of the last fifty years in France, a progressive transformation of the work regime has taken place. As our social ecologies adapt, adopt, conform and metamorphose, conflict, polemics and sometimes creative resistance emerge. The Hypermodernity Factory is based on an investigation carried out within an administrative department of Inria, the French public institute for research into information technology and techniques, then in the midst of a social crisis to discern psychic and collective individuation processes in a context of instability and specific communication difficulties.

Immersed in these almost disruptive anthropotechnical conditions and subject to unavoidable processes of subjectivation the subject of office life from manager to employee finds themselves in a confused situation they are constantly living a complex experience of their own in the hybrid dynamic evolution of the digital regime
