

A Roman fresco depicting a religious ceremony. In the center, a woman in a white stola and palla stands before a large, ornate altar, pouring liquid from a vessel. To her left, a group of women in similar attire are gathered, some holding up objects. To her right, another woman stands near a large, decorated bowl. In the background, a man in a white tunic stands with his arms outstretched. The scene is set in a room with a large doorway in the background. The fresco is painted on a wall with visible cracks and some fading of the paint.
