My Application At Turfloop:

The Law and the Prophets Daniel R. Magaziner, 2010 No nation can win a battle without faith Steve Biko wrote and as Daniel R Magaziner demonstrates in The Law and the Prophets the combination of ideological and theological exploration proved a potent force The 1970s are a decade virtually lost to South African historiography This span of years bridged the banning and exile of the country's best known anti-apartheid leaders in the early 1960s and the furious protests that erupted after the Soweto uprisings of June 16 1976 Scholars thus know that something happened yet they have only recently begun to explore how and why The Law and the Prophets is an intellectual history of the resistance movement between 1968 and 1977 it follows the formation early trials and ultimate dissolution of the Black Consciousness movement It differs from previous anti-apartheid historiography however in that it focuses more on ideas than on people and organizations Its singular contribution is an exploration of the theological turn that South African politics took during this time Magaziner argues that only by understanding how ideas about race faith and selfhood developed and were transformed in this period might we begin to understand the dramatic changes that took place Publisher description Apartheid and the Making of a Black Psychologist N. Chabani Manganyi, 2016-05-01 This intriguing memoir details in a quiet and restrained manner with what it meant to be a committed black intellectual activist during the apartheid years and beyond Few autobiographies exploring the life of the mind and the history of ideas have come out of South Africa and N Chabani Manganyi's reflections on a life engaged with ideas the psychological and philosophical workings of the mind and the act of writing are a refreshing addition to the genre of life writing Starting with his rural upbringing in Mavambe Limpopo in the 1940s Manganyi's life story unfolds at a gentle pace tracing the twists and turns of his journey from humble beginnings to Yale University in the USA The author details his work as a clinical practitioner and researcher as a biographer as an expert witness in defence of opponents of the apartheid regime and finally as a leading educationist in Mandela's Cabinet and in the South African academy Apartheid and the Making of a Black Psychologist is a book about relationships and the fruits of intellectual and creative labour Manganyi describes how he used his skills as a clinical psychologist to explore lives both those of the subjects of his biographies and those of the accused for whom he testified in mitigation his aim always to find a higher purpose and a higher self On Your Own Mosibudi Mangena, 1989 Es'kia Continued Es'kia Mphahlele, 2005 Black Lawyers, White Courts Kenneth S.
