Assessment John Salvia,James E. Ysseldyke,1995 Most educators are convinced we need to do a better job of assessing students either with new tests or new applications of tests All argue that at this very critical time it is imperative that educators be very knowledgeable about assessment and the ways assessment information is used to make decisions about students The book is intended for a first course in assessment for those whose careers require understanding and informed use of assessment data The primary audience comprises those who are or will be teachers in special education at the elementary or secondary level In writing for those who are taking their first course in assessment we have assumed no prior knowledge of measurement and statistical concepts Pref

Cooperative Learning and the Collaborative School Ronald S. Brandt,1991 Cooperation in the classroom counteracts well established routines and values that nearly all adults and many educators take for granted Education remains a fiercely competitive enterprise and individualistic notions of professionalism predominate Despite the continued importance of independence initiative and personal achievement today s schools are experimenting with consideration sharing collegiality and commitment to group goals This volume contains readings from recent editions of Educational Leadership on cooperative learning and collaborative schools beginning with Robert Slavin s introduction and Ronald Brandt's insistence that cooperation is not un-American. The articles in the second section discuss various cooperative learning models including Team Assisted Individuation, Cooperative Integrated Reading and Composition, and Group Investigation. The third section is devoted to implementation of cooperative learning and the fourth section highlights the idea of schools as caring communities developed through group work. The sixth section provides ideas on how to get started and the seventh section summarizes controversies among various researchers. The final section presents articles on the collaborative school focusing on developing teacher collegiality, cooperative professional development, and school improvement efforts. The volume ends with an extensive annotated bibliography divided into nine parts. MLH

The Ultimate Atlanta School Guide, 2000 Academic Achievement and Aptitude Testing Victor L. Willson, 1989

Louisiana Register, 2008 Essentials of Standardized Achievement Testing Thomas M. Haladyna, 2002 B This book examines standardized achievement testing in critical terms with the notion that students should be tested in ways that benefit them and their learning. This book seeks to increase readers' understanding of standardized testing so that they will become intelligent consumers and is organized around the central issues of interpretation, usage, and consequences of testing. Focused on issues and based on the most current research and practice, this material offers educators, administrators, and policy makers information critical to success in today's classroom. Market K-12 Faculty and Administrators, Parent Teacher Coordinators Assessment in Counseling Albert Bullard Hood, Richard W. Johnson, 2007 This best-selling handbook examines the basic principles of psychological assessment and the tests most widely used by counselors. Hood and Johnson explain how to choose and administer testing instruments, conduct assessments, and interpret and communicate test results. More than 100 instruments used with diverse populations in schools, university counseling centers, government mental health clinics, and private practice to assess intelligence, academic aptitude, career development, personal values, interpersonal relationships, mental health, and counseling outcomes are described. This edition contains information on the latest editions of existing instruments, including revised versions of the Stanford-Binet test, the Strong Interest Inventory, the Work Values Inventory, the California Psychological Inventory, and the SAT, as well as changes in school achievement tests required by the No Child Left Behind Act. New tests such as the Kuder Skills Assessment, Expanded Skills Confidence Inventory, Career Futures Inventory, the Schwartz Value Survey, and the Restructured Clinical Scales of the MMPI-2 are also highlighted. Clear and concise, Assessment in Counseling provides an excellent framework for assessment courses and is a handy reference for practitioners. Profiles in Two-way Immersion Education, 1997
