Myra Hindley Jean Ritchie,1988 Moving Targets Helen Birch,1994-08-08 The rampaging female has become a new cliché in Hollywood cinema a sexy beauty stabbing and shooting her way to box office success Fatal Attraction Thelma and Louise The Hand That Rocks the Cradle and Single White Female are a few of the recent mainstream films that have attracted huge audiences Meanwhile true accounts of a teenager shooting her lover's wife and a battered woman bludgeoning her husband to death get prime news media coverage and are quickly made into TV movies This pioneering collection of essays looks at our enduring fascination with women who murder The authors explore how both fictional and real women are represented as well as the way society responds to these women The result is an often shocking picture of female violence that covers a vast territory the Australian outback a Florida highway an Austrian hospital a French village and Hollywood The women are as diverse as their settings middle class housewives prostitutes house maids nurses high powered professionals There is much here to provoke controversy Society's uncertainty over the role of premenstrual syndrome the fear of lesbianism female violence as self defense against patriarchy and appropriate female behavior are issues that push buttons on several levels Moving Targets is must reading for anyone concerned with violence and representations of women in our culture Addicted to Murder Barry McCauley,2013-12-20 I am a serial killer You don't know me You may know of my work my accomplishments my deeds and my triumphs You will not however know of my mistakes my near misses or what made and inspired me to be the person I am today Gary Robinson has an ordinary name but not an ordinary life He's a man who takes a great amount of care and derives a great amount of pleasure from his work He is a mass murderer a monster He kills for the pleasure of it This is his story written as only he can tell it It is not for the faint hearted The Subject of Murder Lisa Downing,2024-05-31 The subject of murder has always held a particular fascination for us But since at least the nineteenth century we have seen the murderer as different from the ordinary citizen a special individual like an artist or a genius who exists apart from the moral majority a sovereign self who obeys only the destructive urge sometimes even commanding cult followings In contemporary culture we continue to believe that there is something different and exceptional about killers but is the murderer such a distinctive type Are they degenerate beasts or supermen as they have been depicted on the page and the screen Or are murderers something else entirely In The Subject of Murder Lisa Downing explores the ways in which the figure of the murderer has been made to signify a specific kind of social subject in Western modernity Drawing on the work of Foucault in her studies of the lives and crimes of killers in Europe and the United States Downing interrogates the meanings of media and texts produced about and by murderers Upending the usual treatment of murderers as isolated figures or exceptional individuals Downing argues that they are ordinary people reflections of our society at the intersections of gender agency desire and violence Murder Cases of the Twentieth Century David K. Frasier,1996 Profiles of crimes that occurred prior to 1992 and the criminals Murder and Mayhem

David Nash, Anne-Marie Kilday, 2018-04-25 This introductory book offers a coherent history of twentieth century crime and the law in Britain with chapters on topics ranging from homicide to racial hate crime from incest to anarchism from gangs to the death penalty Pulling together a wide range of literature David Nash and Anne Marie Kilday reveal the evolution of attitudes towards criminality and the law over the course of the twentieth century Highlighting important periods of change and development that have shaped the overall history of crime in Britain the authors provide in depth analysis and explanation of each theme This is an ideal companion for undergraduate students taking courses on Crime in Britain as well as a fascinating resource for scholars

Face to Face with Evil Miss Kim Cowley obo Dr Chris Cowley, 2011-01-04 ON 15 MAY 2017 IAN BRADY DIED IN HOSPITAL ENTIRELY UNREPENTANT OF HIS EVIL CRIMES WITH HIM ALMOST CERTAINLY DIED THE SECRET OF WHERE THE BODY OF TWELVE YEAR OLD KEITH BENNETT THE LAST OF HIS AND MYRA HINDLEY S YOUNG VICTIMS LIES Ian Brady was one of the most notorious and reviled serial killers in Britain With his co conspirator Myra Hindley he committed what became known as the Moors Murders in which five children were abducted assaulted and murdered Dr Chris Cowley has a PhD in Cognitive Psychology and lectures in Forensic Criminology He is in the unique position of having had exclusive access to Brady and for six years conducted groundbreaking research by corresponding with Brady and visiting him in prison By gaining his trust Cowley was able to take an unrivalled look inside the mind of a serial killer This in depth and revealing book reproduces letters and transcripts of conversations with Brady which until the first edition came out had never been published before Using this fresh perspective and original material Dr Cowley sheds new light on what went wrong in Brady s formative years to set him on a path of crime and how Hindley became the lethal factor that started Brady s murder cycle It also reveals Brady s unflinching account of being caught and convicted of serial murder and his thoughts and emotions concerning Hindley recorded as he moved into his second decade on hunger strike This important study provides information that is essential to our understanding of the psychology of serial killers By broadening our knowledge of these complex issues we can increase the likelihood of catching murderers and perhaps even prevent their terrible crimes from taking place

The Australian Feminist Law Journal, 2002 Exploring the Mandatory Life Sentence for Murder Barry Mitchell, Julian V Roberts, 2012-10-19 Murder is often regarded as both the ultimate and a unique crime and whereas courts are normally given discretion in sentencing offenders for murder the sentence is mandatory indeterminate imprisonment Since the crime and the punishment come as a package deal this book looks at both the legal nature of the offence and at the current operation of the mandatory life sentence Not only does the book adopt a critical approach by assessing the strengths and weaknesses of the status quo it also draws upon comparative material from both common and civil law jurisdictions in an attempt to provide a comprehensive exploration of these issues The need for public confidence in the criminal justice system is particularly acute in the way it deals with the most serious homicides In this book the authors report findings from the first systematic exploration of public attitudes to sentencing murder in this or any other common law jurisdiction The picture of public opinion emerging from this recent large scale nationwide qualitative and quantitative survey funded by the Nuffield Foundation is likely to surprise many and will be of interest to all jurisdictions where the mandatory life sentence for murder has been questioned American Justice Paul Begg,Rh Value

Publishing,1994 The New Murderers' Who's who ,1991 I met murder on the way wrote Shelley and who of us has not met murder in some form or another on the way In our books and newspapers on the radio and television some famous murder will be mentioned and we will want to know more about it This revised and updated edition of a classic work is a reference book with a difference it features hundreds of notorious murderers from Jack the Ripper to Jack Henry Abbott The entries spanning a period of more than 160 years are listed alphabetically and give full treatment to some of the most ghastly crimes in history THE NEW MURDERERS WHO S WHO also includes more than 150 contemporary photographs drawings and newspaper cuttings and a bibliography of more than a thousand titles to guide the reader to books of further interest More than 100 entries examining new trends in murder such as serial killings and mass murder have been added Jacket

Great Crimes and Trials of the Twentieth Century Paul Begg,Martin Fido,1997 The Need to Kill Steven A. Egger,2003 Procedural and technical inaccuracies can ruin an otherwise effective crime novel especially given the public s ever increasing interest in forensic details In this fascinating guide readers delve into the worldof murder to learn how and why people commit homicide and how detectives capture the deadly perpetrators Rethinking Serial Murder, Spree

Killing, and Atrocities Robert Shanafelt,Nathan W. Pino,2014-11-20 Multiple killings by serial or spree killers and the mass violence seen in war crimes and other atrocities have typically been understood as discrete category types which can foster the view that there are fundamentally different kinds of human beings including deviants who are born evil and innately given to sadism or a callous lack of empathy In contrast this book considers the violence of these deviants in terms of larger questions about human violence Therefore in addition to describing the life histories of a sample of individual serial and spree murderers the book includes analysis of macro level phenomena such as genocide mass rape and killing and torture occurring under conditions of war state authorization or political upheaval The chief claim of the book is that given the right combination of factors occurring at different levels of analysis virtually anyone can emerge as a killer or perpetrator of atrocities While it is crucial to understand individual killers in terms of the details of their biographies it is equally crucial to understand political atrocities in terms of the details of their histories and to see that persons and groups are always the product of complexly interacting assemblage processes The Gates of Janus Ian Brady,2001 Introduction by Colin Wilson

Certain to be one of the most controversial books of the year this is a full length work by Ian Brady who along with Myra Hindley was responsible for The Moors Murders in the early 1960s Written after Colin Wilson suggested that he analyse serial murder and come to terms with the crimes he committed Brady s work is both psychological and philosophical and is based upon his readings observations and life story An extraordinary work that provides an insight into the mind of a criminal as never before Serial Slaughter Michael Newton,1992 In this follow up to his Hunting humans an encyclopedia of modern serial killers Newton uses the case histories of some 800 serial killers in a search for patterns and meaning in the apparent madness Includes statements of convicted serial killers the forms used by the FBI to profile serial killers and photos of some of the more notorious murderers Acidic paper Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Waterstone's Guide to Books Waterstone & Co,1988 Murder Most Rare Michael D. Kelleher,C. Kelleher,1998-02-28 While the short lethal careers of serial killers such as Jeffrey Dahmer and Andrew Cunanan terrorize the public and provide morbid inspiration for the entertainment industry few people realize that it is the female serial killer seldom heard of who deserves most to be feared Murder Most Rare provides startling information about the female serial murderer who is shown to be far more deadly and determined difficult to apprehend and complexly motivated than her male counterpart While serial murder by women is relatively rare a surprising number of female serial killers are identified by the authors nearly 100 in this century with half of them having committed their crimes in America By examining these women s backgrounds motives and methods of killing the book sheds new light on dozens of overlooked cases of murder and uncovers callous crimes and passions gone awry After a thought provoking exploration of the cultural biases that have caused us historically to dismiss and ignore the criminal potential of women Murder Most Rare divides female serial murders for the first time into seven categories Black Widow Angel of Death Sexual Predator Revenge Profit or Crime Team Killer and Question of Sanity These seven types vary widely in motivation choice of victims weapons and methods The authors reveal patterns that occur within the types but stress that the complicated nature of these women s crimes makes personality profiling almost impossible a fact that causes the jobs of homicide investigators to be difficult indeed sometimes impossible This is a uniquely personal look into a dark shocking world The Killers Among Us Steven A. Egger,2002 This is an introduction to serial killers and killings It includes seven case studies a discussion of the myths surrounding serial murderers and the reasons why they continue to kill the seven major problems of investigating a serial murder and an analysis of the fourteen different law enforcement agencies who respond to a serial murder Other topics covered include how the media treats serial murder an essay on victimology a discussion on the concept of the less dead or how victims of serial killers are devalued Point of Arrival Andrew Graham-Yooll,1992 In a series of linked essays author and journalist Andrew Graham Yooll the editor of Index on Censorship dissects his own experience of exile as an Argentine now living and working in London to evoke a wholly new understanding of contemporary Britain and its mores
