Mysticism in Postmodernist Long Poems Joe Moffett, 2014-10-28 Written from a literary critic's perspective
Mysticism in Postmodernist Long Poems borrows insights from Religious Studies and critical theory to examine the role of spirituality in contemporary poetry specifically the genre of the long poem Descending from Whitman's Song of Myself the long poem is often considered the American twentieth century equivalent of the epic poem but unlike the epic it carries few generic expectations aside from the fact that it simply must be long This makes the form particularly pliable as a tool for spiritual inquiry The period following World War II is often described as a secular age but spirituality continued as a concern for poets as evidenced by this study These writers look beyond conventional faith systems and instead seek individual paths of understanding they engage in mysticism in other words With chapters on H D and Brenda Hillman Robert Duncan James Merrill Charles Wright and Galway Kinnell and Gary Snyder this study demonstrates how these poets engage the culture of consumption in the postwar years at the same time they search for opportunities for transcendence Not content to throw over the earthly in favor of the otherworldly these poets reject the familiar binary of the worldly and metaphysical to produce distinctive paths of spiritual understanding that fuel what Wright calls a contemplation of the divine The Fire that Breaks Daniel Westover, Thomas Alan Holmes, 2020-02-27 The Fire that Breaks brings together an international team of scholars to explore for the first time Hopkins's extended influence on the poets and novelists who have defined modern and contemporary Anglo American literature since the advent of the twentieth century The Power of Words Mauro Buccheri, Elio Costa, Donald Holoch, 2005 Religious and Theological Abstracts, 2006 High Lonesome Adam Giannelli, 2006 This updating of our previous title The Point Where All Things Meet which Tom Andrews edited in 1994 selects from the contents of that earlier book and adds many new essays that have appeared in the interim The result is a complex and generous survey of Charles Wright's trilogy of trilogies the sweeping project encompassed in the selected volumes comprised by Country Music 1982 The World of the Ten Thousand Things 1990 and Negative Blue 2000
Postmodern Currents Margot Lovejoy, 1997 Postmodern Currents Art and Artists in the Age of Electronic Media explores in detail the growing impact of video and computer technologies and of the Internet on aesthetic experience and examines the emerging role of the artist as social communicator It recounts the involvement of such artists as Jenny Holzer Nam June Paik Bill Viola Gary Hill and Laurie Anderson among others with electronic media and discusses the important economic social and aesthetic issues these new technologies imply The Age of Milton Alan Hager, 2004-03-30 Alphabetically arranged entries provide information on the lives and works of more than seventy five seventeenth century British and American writers Better Than Wine Yudit Kornberg Greenberg, 1996 Whitaker's Books in Print, 1998 Sight and Sound, 2002 The Philosopher's Index, 2007 Vols for 1969 include a section of abstracts Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1997 The Mystic Way in

Postmodernity Sue Yore, 2009 This book challenges experiential esoteric and colloquial understandings of mysticism by bringing a fresh relevance to the term through an interdisciplinary dialogue between literature mysticism and theology in the context of postmodernity In order to achieve this the author takes selected writings of Iris Murdoch Denise Levertov and Annie Dillard and incorporates them into various stages of a redesigned mystic way The fourteenth century mystic Julian of Norwich is invoked throughout as a role model whom these three writers seek to emulate as popular writers contemplatives and theologians As theologians who are concerned with the pressing issues of our age Grace Jantzen Dorothee Soelle and Sallie McFague are drawn on as conversation partners to complete the three way discussion The author maintains that understanding the writing and reading of creative texts in the context of practical mysticism facilitates an integrated approach to the use of literature for theological expression The Publishers Weekly, 2003 Poetry of Contemplation

Arthur L. Clements, 1990-06-01 This is the first systematic and thorough study of mysticism or contemplation in these three seventeenth century poets and in three modern writers It not only clarifies the very confused issue of mysticism in seventeenth century poetry but also connects seventeenth century poets with modern literature and science through the contemplative tradition from the Bible and Plato and Church fathers and important mystics of the Middle Ages through Renaissance and modern contemplatives The transformative and redemptive power of contemplative poetry or holy writing regardless of genre or discipline is prominent throughout the book and the relevance indeed the vital necessity of such poetry and of the living contemplative tradition to our apocalyptic modern world is discussed in the last chapter In this chapter attention is given to modern science especially to the new physics and to philosophical and mystical writings of eminent scientists The Divine Artist Mark Megna, 2013-10 This book is intended for those on a spiritual quest It is only to be read while sitting in a temple on the top of Mount Everest in the Himalayan Mountains while in a mystical trance Only there will you be able to sit in complete silence and contemplation This holy scripture is meant to be spoken aloud for seven straight days so that the messages will emanate out into the universe so that a new perfect universe will be born One without evil suffering limits or death This is a pilgrimage of destiny Nothing is more important in life than your eternal self What does it mean to be truly free If the truths of these scriptures are meditated upon by a man in the highest degree devoted to God and to his Guru as to his God they will shine forth They will shine forth indeed Upanishads OM Peace peace peace The Divine Enchantment John Gneisenau Neihardt, 2012-01-01 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy Theognosis Robert Moreno III, 2005-09 for there is a period in life which is called the age of disillusion which means the age at which a man discovers that his honest and generous impulses are incompatible with success in business that the institutions he has revered are shams and that he must join the conspiracy or go the wall George Bernard Shaw THOSE WHO GIVE is about teachers in the age of disillusion It is tragedy and comedy history and prophecy celebration and indictment The setting is Boesch Conklyn Academy a public high school in upstate New York Structured in three parts the novel begins with Book One October 23 1980 moves forward in time with Book Two Interim Progress Report and reaches its inevitable conclusion in Book Three Antithesis Through the experiences of teachers THOSE WHO GIVE reflects the human condition by exploring such universal themes as love loss greed work ethic betrayal and irony     The Divine Enchantment John Gneisenau Neihardt,1925
