A Comparative Examination of Multi-Party Actions Joanne Blennerhassett, 2016-10-20 This monograph addresses the phenomenon of mass harm and how it may be resolved through collective redress It examines particularly how such redress may be achieved through mechanisms such as multi party actions MPAs In order to do this an analytical framework is created against which to evaluate various multi party procedures This is illustrated through the experience of a selection of common law jurisdictions in dealing with mass harm namely that of England and Wales Canada Australia and the United States as well as that of EU collective redress It examines multi party action laws benchmarked against the objectives identified in the analytical framework The phenomenon of environmental mass harm in particular is explored as a case study as it illustrates some of the difficulties that may arise in mass harm litigation Also this work explores where the best solutions for mass harm redress may lie in the future perhaps in collective actions or through alternatives such as regulation and alternative dispute resolution or a combination of these Finally the experience of mass harm litigation in Ireland is examined as currently this jurisdiction does not have an effective mechanism for dealing with mass harm This title is included in Bloomsbury Professional's International Arbitration online service
