

Scoring Guide: Narrative Writing

Narrative writing re-creates a real or imagined experience. It usually contains four elements: characters, a setting, a chronological sequence of events, and a conflict or problem to be solved. The writer typically builds in high points by putting characters into interesting situations, weaving in plot twists, incorporating vivid details, and creating a central conflict or problem that builds suspense and holds the piece together.

6 HIGH	EXCEPTIONAL <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Starts with a lead that sets up the story and draws in the reader. Contains characters that are believable, fresh, and well described. The characters grow and learn. Describes a setting that is unique and rich. Features events that are logically sequenced and move the story forward. Time and place work in harmony. Is a complete story that has never been told or is an original twist on a familiar story. The plot is well developed. There is a key conflict or problem that is compelling and eventually solved. Features well-used literary techniques, such as foreshadowing and symbolism. Leaves the reader feeling intrigued, delighted, surprised, entertained, and/or informed. Ends satisfyingly because the key conflict or problem is solved thoughtfully and credibly.
5 MIDDLE	STRONG
4 MIDDLE	REFINING <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Starts with a lead that sets the scene, but is predictable or unoriginal. Contains characters that are a bit too familiar. The characters show little change in their thinking or understanding as the story moves along. Offers a setting that is not described all that well. Features events that are given the same level of importance. Significant ones mingle with trivial ones, and sometimes stray from the main story line. Is a nearly complete story that may not contain new or original thinking. The plot moves forward, but then stumbles. Minor conflicts and problems distract from major ones. Contains examples of literary techniques such as foreshadowing and symbolism that are not all that effective. Leaves the reader engaged at some points, detached at others. Ends by providing the reader with a sense of resolution, but he or she may also feel unsatisfied or perplexed.
3 MIDDLE	DEVELOPING
2 LOW	EMERGING <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Starts with a lead that is perfunctory: "I'm going to tell you about the time..." Contains characters that don't feel real. The unconvincing characters are stereotypes or cardboard cutouts. Offers a setting that is not at all described clearly and/or completely. Features simple, incomplete events that don't relate to one another and/or add up to anything much. There is a mismatch between the time and place. Is a story that jumps around illogically. There is no clear conflict or problem to be solved. Contains no examples of literary techniques—or, at most, poor, purposeless ones. Leaves the reader frustrated and/or disappointed. He or she feels the story was not thought out before it was committed to paper. Finishes with no clear ending or, at most, a halfhearted attempt at an ending, leaving the reader wondering why he or she bothered to read the piece.
