

Animal Poem - Hedgehog

They live their lives round,
Without any sound,
They roll down to those found,
Even though they can fall,
Since they are such a ball,
They care for others without them to notice,
They protect others without some notice,
They will always sleep,
They will always creep,
They might look dangerous,
But they sure are adventurous,
They will snuggle up to you,
When they know that you also care for them too.
