True Tales of a Traveller Volume One Alix Lee, The True Tales of a Traveller series of short stories and novellas consists of several dozen real life travellers tales covering three and a half decades Although presented in a short story format for reading convenience these stories are not fiction Apart from some of the characters names which have been changed to protect their identities everything in these stories is true The first of this series of stories Goodbye Sinai is set in 1982 at the time of Israel's return of the Sinai peninsula to Egypt during my time working as a volunteer on a kibbutz in the nearby Negev desert This is the story of a hitchhiking trip to the southern tip of the Sinai As well as being a lesson to be mentally prepared for possible hardships when hitchhiking and to keep an open mind and disregard stereotypes when dealing with the people you meet it also provides a glimpse into life in the region as the Israelis were pulling out The second of this series of stories Working Holiday is set in a hotel just outside Athens Greece in 1982 where I worked with two friends from the Israeli kibbutz A seemingly perfect working holiday turns into a very difficult situation as it becomes apparent that the hotel manager does not pay his employees A showdown with the manager over pay results in him pulling a gun on us The hotel was still in operation at the time of this book s publication The third of this series of stories The Long Way Home is set in not one but half a dozen European countries in 1982 and 1983 At over 17 000 words this story is a short novella In addition to being a travel story The Long Way Home is also a love story and a story about the unexpected twists and turns that can occur in personal relationships The fourth story in the series Alternative Medicine is set mostly in Greece and Egypt in 1983 At around 13 000 words this is a lengthy short story which may need more than one sitting As well as being a travel story Alternative Medicine is also a story about career hopes delusions expectations and opportunities The fifth story A Career in Travel is at nearly 40 000 words a substantial novella length account set mostly in Britain in 1984 The story is about a young traveller s attempt to integrate his love for travel into a regular settled lifestyle in London Although humorous in places this is also a thought provoking story that goes to the heart of what it means to be a traveller the differences and similarities between a traveller and a tourist the differences and similarities between a traveller and an immigrant and a traveller s place in society Travel in the British Isles and a number of nearby countries is related as the traveller tries hard to come to terms with self imposed travel limitations and the challenges of settling down into a more sedentary and hopefully matrimonial life Like the other stories in the series it provides not only an entertaining read but also information on all the places visited some relevant only to the era in which the story is set but most still relevant at the time of this book s publication

The Girl in the Window and Other True Tales Lane DeGregory,2023-04-05 Part anthology and part craft guide this collection of pieces from the Pulitzer Prize winning journalist offers something for readers and writers alike Lane DeGregory loves true stories intimate details and big ideas In her three decade career as a journalist she has published more than 3 000 stories and won the Pulitzer Prize for feature writing Her acclaimed work in the Tampa Bay Times often takes her to the edges of society where she paints empathetic portraits of real life characters like a 99 year old man who still works cleaning a seafood warehouse a young couple on a bus escaping winter and a child in the midst of adoption In The Girl in the Window and Other True Tales DeGregory not only offers up the first collection of her most unforgettable newspaper features she pulls back the curtain on how to write narrative nonfiction This book part anthology part craft guide provides a forensic reading of twenty four of DeGregory's singular stories illustrating her tips for writers alongside pieces that put those elements under the microscope Each of the pieces gathered here including the Pulitzer Prize winning title story is accompanied by notes on how she built the story plus tips on how nonfiction writers at all levels can do the same Featuring a foreword by Beth Macy author of the acclaimed Dopesick this book is sure to delight fans of DeGregory's writing as well as introduce her to readers and writers who have not yet discovered her inspiring body of work

True Tales of a Traveller Volume Two Alix Lee, This book Volume Two of the True Tales of a Traveller series consists of three travel stories two substantial novella length stories separated by a story of short story length These stories can read separately but the best way to read them is to start with the first That principle applies to the whole series and also to this volume It isn't necessary however to read all the stories of Volume One to enjoy those related in Volume Two The book begins in late 1984 with the sixth tale in the series overall Culture Shock This story finds the young traveller myself taken from the relative orderliness of a life in London where he had been attempting with mixed results to pursue a career in travel related in the fifth story of the series A Career in Travel and throws him into the furious assault on the senses that constituted life in the Indian capital Delhi at that time The second story of this volume Just A Businessman is set in Indian administered Kashmir At nearly 17 000 words this account constitutes a lengthy short story which may need more than one sitting to read In addition to being a travel story Just A Businessman is also a story about religious and ethnic conflict and political upheavals and the extents to which these can affect the life of a traveller or an outsider Overlanding Part One is the third story in this volume and at over 46 000 words the longest story of the series so far for one of the shortest periods of actual travel Of all my travels in the 1980s in terms of time spent undoubtedly no journey made such a deep and lasting impression on me as this overland trip from Karachi to Rotterdam Not only did it unceremoniously blow away many of my own preconceived notions of life in Pakistan and Iran it was also a harsh lesson for me as a traveller in the virtues of being prepared for any journey into terra incognita Additionally the first part of the journey from Karachi to the Turkish border with Iran was relatively dangerous not due to involving difficult terrain but rather to man made hazards But overall the journey turned out to be something I originally had never suspected for a moment it would be an intensive course in the follies of racial prejudice and ethnic chauvinism Like all the other stories in the series these three stories provide not only entertaining reads but also information on all the places visited some relevant only to the era in which the story is set but most still relevant at the time of this book's publication

Everyday Heroism: Victorian Constructions of the Heroic Civilian John Price, 2014-01-16 Heroism in the 19th and early 20th centuries is synonymous with military endeavours imperial adventures and the great men of history There was however another prominent and influential strand of the idea which has until now been largely overlooked This book seeks to address this oversight and establish new avenues of study by revealing and examining everyday heroism acts of life risking bravery undertaken by otherwise ordinary individuals largely in the course of their daily lives and within quotidian surroundings Adopting an interdisciplinary approach John Price charts and investigates the growth and development of this important discourse presenting in depth case studies of The Albert Medal and the Carnegie Hero Fund alongside a nationwide analysis of heroism monuments and an exploration of radical approaches to the concept Unlike its military and imperial counterparts everyday heroism embraced the heroine and this study reflects that with an examination of female heroism Discovering why certain individuals or acts were accorded the status of being heroic also provides insights into those that recognized them Heroism is a flexible and malleable constellation of ideas shaped or constructed along different lines by different people so if you want to identify the characteristics of a group or society much can be learnt by studying those it holds up as heroic Consequently Everyday Heroism Victorian Constructions of the Heroic Civilian provides valuable and revealing evidence for a wide range of social and cultural topics including class gender identity memory celebrity and literary and visual culture New York School Journal ,1907 Telling Sexual Stories Kenneth Plummer,1995 First published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company True Tales of a Traveller Volume Three , This is the third book in the True Tales of a Traveller series and it consists of three novella length tales Overlanding Pt 2 One Day in Bangkok and Solid Gold Easy Action Overlanding consists of two parts of approximately equal length Due to length considerations these two parts are published separately with Part One appearing in Volume Two of the True Tales of a Traveller series and Part Two appearing in Volume Three the two are also published separately as one book Although this story is best appreciated by reading the full account it isn't necessary to read any of the previous stories to enjoy any story in the series Part Two of Overlanding presented here is an account the journey from the Turkish Iranian border to the Netherlands Of all my travels in the 1980s in terms of time spent undoubtedly no journey made such a deep and lasting impression on me as this overland trip from Karachi to Rotterdam which in total took just a little over three weeks The journey turned out to be something I originally had never suspected for a moment it would be an intensive course in the follies of racial prejudice and ethnic chauvinism The story includes examples of racial and ethnic prejudice and discrimination involving one way or another Japanese Pakistanis Iranians Arabs Turks Greeks Germans Dutch British and Irish whites blacks Jews Muslims and non Muslims Although this turned out to be the overriding theme of the journey needless to say when I embarked on it such a possibility was far from my mind The tenth story in the True Tales of a Traveller series and the second story in this book One Day in Bangkok is set in Thailand and the Netherlands It's a story of an ambitious travel plan thwarted by the kind of seasoned tricksters who prey on tourists anywhere in the world where the volume of foreign visitors make it worthwhile to devise schemes to relieve them of their finances At least one of the schemes detailed in the story is still in use today though perhaps in a slightly different form and it even has its own Wikipedia page This true account serves as a reference and a warning just as valid for travellers who have been on the road for years as it is for those setting off overseas for the first time The eleventh story in the series overall and the last story in this book Solid

Gold Easy Action is probably the most unique story of the whole series for it involves a very unusual kind of work I was engaged in for several months in east Asia and this kind of work seems to have long since disappeared almost without a trace When writing this story I tried to find other accounts or references to this kind of work to be sure I hadn't missed any salient facts in this writing The only references to this kind of work I could find online had been written years after I had been involved in it at a time when it had already become unprofitable And none of these references went into this kind of work in any depth None mentioned the pleasures and the risks that came with this kind of work which I thought was unfortunate because there were plenty of both Like all the other stories in the series the stories here provide not only entertaining reading but also information on all the places visited some relevant only to the era in which the story is set but most still relevant at the time of this book's publication Catalogue of the J. My Story Book True Tales From Everyday Life: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. My Story Book True Tales From Everyday Life : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Pappen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
