Songs of My Life... Slightly Out of Tune Susan Dintino, 2012-06-28 Songs of My Life Slightly Out of Tune speaks to a generation of women and men over the age of 40 who are dealing with life's challenges both big and small Susan Dintino writes about love marriage family aging health scares parenting and staying relevant and excited about what life has to offer Her message is one of hope and her conclusion is that we're all trying to do our best and it's better if we can do so with a smile Susan offers gentle advice the kind that comes from a lifetime of experience What should you do if your spouse loves to give you the silent treatment How do you conquer your own fears in order to be cool enough to your kids during a European school trip How do you interact with a terminally ill sibling and deal with the regrets of not spending enough time with each other How can you make sure that you're a good mate parent and person This book shows you that life is like a song You learn the words but that's not the end because the tune can change at any time Susan shares her journey in such a way that you'll smile tear up wince and nod your head in time to her song because all of us are the same We're slightly out of tune too

The Songs of Edvard Grieg Beryl Foster, 2007 Comprehensive survey of Grieg's 180 songs considering particularly questions and issues of performance Edvard Grieg's 180 songs mirror his artistic and personal development more intimately than any of his other music yet are still the least known part of his output This definitive appraisal now revised and updated discusses every song including those left only in manuscript and sketches at the composer's death set against the background of his life and times It also deals with the poetry set often chosen to reflect his current situation and the poets several of whom including great figures of the day such as Ibsen and Bjornson were his friends and colleagues Grieg frequently bemoaned poor translations and indifferent performances and the various editions and translations from first publication to the present day are also discussed together with his own ideas for interpretation Musical examples and analysis are included to give a closer understanding of Grieg's word setting and harmonic development although their performance is always kept paramount BERYL FOSTER is a graduate of London University and studied singing in Colchester and at the Royal College of Music As well as all the usual repertoire since 1980 she has made a particular study of the songs of Grieg and other Norwegian composers giving recitals lectures and workshops in Britain Norway Germany the Netherlands Italy and China She is also a private teacher and festival adjudicator Primary Education ,1927 The Musician ,1903
