My Father Acrostic Poem:

The Fractured Twentieth Century Jerry Grafstien, 2022-12-23 A personal history of the fragmented 20th century that has careened from modern technology to barbarity in a complex and confusing spiral The author is the son of immigrants who were born thirty kilometres from each other in southern Poland Fortuitously due to religious ties they met in Toronto in 1927 fell in love married and settled in London Ontario in 1930 The author's father's life spanned the first half of the twentieth century until his tragic death in a street accident in 1950 His mother's life spanned the entire twentieth century born in 1900 arriving in Canada in 1907 and she passed away in 2002 in Toronto and remained lucid to the end History repeats itself while mistakes are little learned from errors venality and endless brutality At best he witnessed the descent from principle to pragmatism He is fortunate in encountering fascinating personalities in politics religion arts academia and sports all of whom left singular impressions on him and others in Canada and around the globe Ultimately he discovered that it is not the destination but the journey along the way that continues to astound and surprise him as the innards of the human condition revolves and evolves without rhyme or reason Poems. Brueggemann,2025-02-04 Walter Brueggemann has been so effective for so long precisely because he has consistently called upon the church to see beyond the taken for granted realities it confronts by imagining God's alternative reality to recognize that the bars of its entrapment were social constructs and could just as easily be deconstructed so we could be once again enchanted by God's good news To challenge the taken for granted reality of the church and to imagine an alternative reality Brueggemann consistently takes us back to the biblical text He moves between a description of the reality that appears in front of the church and the alternative that God is preparing for God's people that begins now and moves into God's eschatological future In so doing Brueggemann seeks to unleash the power of God's words to create a new world here and now
