Price,1996-03-14 In a cultural history which considers the transformation of south Indian institutions under British colonial rule in the nineteenth century Pamela Price focuses on the two former little kingdoms of Ramnad and Sivagangai which came under colonial governance as revenue estates She demonstrates how rivalries among the royal families and major zamindari temples and the disintegration of indigenous institutions of rule contributed to the development of nationalist ideologies and new political identities among the people of southern Tamil country The author also shows how religious symbols and practices going back to the seventeenth century were reformulated and acquired a new significance in the colonial context Arguing for a reappraisal of the relationship of Hinduism to politics Price finds that these symbols and practices continue to inform popular expectation of political leadership today The Sivaganga Zemindary ,1899 Automotive Industries ,1998 AKASHVANI Publications Division (India), New Delhi ,1963-12-08 Akashvani English is a programme journal of ALL INDIA RADIO it was formerly known as The Indian Listener It used to serve the listener as a bradshaw of broadcasting and give listener the useful information in an interesting manner about programmes who writes them take part in them and produce them along with photographs of performing artists It also contains the information of major changes in the policy
