Namibian Books in Print ,2004 Racism Albert J. Wheeler,2005 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature The Namibian War of Independence, 1966-1989 Richard Dale,2014-11-19 The decolonization of Namibia was delayed from 1966 to 1989 the period of the war of independence pitting the Namibian nationalists against the South African minority ruled regime This book describes the diplomatic economic and military campaigns of the Namibian and South African belligerents and draws a comparison with several other decolonization wars Using data from parliamentary debates the aftermath is examined of the Namibian war and the newly independent nation The book provides a basis for further investigation of the decolonization process Parks and People in Postcolonial Societies M. Ramutsindela,2006-01-14 Against the background of colonial and postcolonial experiences this volume shows that power relations and stereotypes embedded in the original Western idea of a national park are a continuing reality of contemporary national and transnational parks The volume seeks to dispel the myth that colonial beliefs and practices in protected areas have ended with the introduction of new nature conservation policies and practices It explores this continuity against the backdrop of the development of the national park idea in the West and its trajectories in colonial and postcolonial societies particularly southern Africa This volume analyses the dynamic relations between people and national parks and assesses these in southern Africa against broader experiences in postcolonial societies It draws examples from a broad range of situations and places It reinserts issues of prejudices into contemporary national park systems and accounts for continuities and interruptions in national parks ideals in different contexts Its interpretation of material transcends the North South divide This volume is accessible to readers from different academic backgrounds It is of special interest to academics policymakers and Non Governmental Organisations This book can also be used as prescribed or reference material in courses taught at university Resources in Education ,1990-03 Historical Abstracts Eric H. Boehm,1993 Colonizers and Citizens Lora Joyce Wildenthal,1994 The African Book Publishing Record ,1999 African Urban Studies ,1985 Gender, Transitional Justice and Memorial Arts Jelke Boesten,Helen Scanlon,2021-05-17 This book examines the role of post conflict memorial arts in bringing about gender justice in transitional societies Art and post violence memorialisation are currently widely debated Scholars of human rights and of commemorative arts discuss the aesthetics and politics not only of sites of commemoration but of literature poetry visual arts and increasingly film and comics Art memory and activism are also increasingly intertwined But within the literature around post conflict transitional justice and critical human rights studies there is little questioning about what memorial arts do for gender justice how women and men are included and represented and how this intertwines with other questions of identity and representation such as race and ethnicity The book brings together research from scholars around the world who are interested in the gendered dimensions of memory making in transitional societies Addressing a global range of cases including genocide authoritarianism civil war electoral violence and apartheid they consider not only the gendered commemoration of past violence but also the possibility of producing counter narratives that unsettle and challenge established stereotypes Aimed at those interested in the fields of transitional justice memory studies post conflict peacebuilding human rights and gender studies this book will appeal to academics researchers and practitioners
