Life Sciences Trial Exam 2014 Western Cape:

A Far-Away War Ian Liebenberg, 2016-01-31 South Africa's armed forces invaded Angola in 1975 setting off a war that had consequences for the whole region that are still felt today A Far Away War contributes to a wider understanding of this war in Angola and Namibia The book does not only look at the war from an e olde South African Defence Force perspective but also gives a voice to participants e on the other sidee emphasising the role of the Cubans and Russians This focus is supplemented by the inclusion of many never before published photographs from Cuban and Russian archives and a comprehensive bibliography #MeToo and Beyond M. Cristina Alcalde, Paula-Irene Villa, 2022-07-26 NiUnaMenos

Aufschrei LoSHA Before MeToo became a massive global movement these were the hashtags that represented activists from Ukraine to Peru who demanded accountability for the sexual violence and racism xenophobia and misogyny inflicted on women transgender people and girls Led by activists such as Tarana Burke who popularized the phrase me too these movements provided a call to action for survivors across the world to speak out about their experiences In MeToo and Beyond M Cristina Alcalde and Paula Irene Villa bring together scholars and activists from various backgrounds to approach MeToo from multiple spaces positionalities and areas of expertise many from regions and contexts often overlooked and understudied in the mediascapes of the global North This volume includes perspectives from around the world and touches on diverse topics spanning masculinity studies transgender people's heightened risk of suffering sexual harassment and violence the internal conflict in American Jewish communities as activists began speaking out against prominent members who relied on shared cultural values to shame their victims as well as many other significant aspects of the first all inclusive international effort to end gender based violence The editors and contributors heed Burke's call to amplify marginalized voices so that instead of becoming footnotes these voices guide activists to frame polyphony as central to understanding past current and future forms of gender based violence and resistance The goal of MeToo and Beyond is to examine both profoundly universal and specific experiences of sexual violence as well as the collective effort to stop gender based violence wherever it occurs Activists and scholars will find this book an important and necessary contribution to current and future discussions on sexual violence and global movements The Politics of Potential Michelle Pentecost, 2024-01-12

The first one thousand days of human life or the period between conception and age two is one of the most pivotal periods of human development Optimizing nutrition during this time not only prevents childhood malnutrition but also determines future health and potential The Politics of Potential examines early life interventions in the first one thousand days of life in South Africa drawing on fieldwork from international conferences government offices health care facilities and the everyday lives of fifteen women and their families in Cape Town Michelle Pentecost explores various aspects of a politics of potential a term that underlines the first one thousand days concept and its effects on clinical care and the lives of childbearing women in South Africa Why was the First One Thousand Days project so readily adopted by South Africa and many other countries

Pentecost not only explores this question but also discusses the science of intergenerational transmissions of health disease and human capital and how this constitutes new forms of intergenerational responsibility The women who are the target of first one thousand days interventions are cast as both vulnerable and responsible for the health of future generations such that despite its history intergenerational responsibility in South Africa remains entrenched in powerfully gendered and racialized ways

Preventing HIV Among Young People in Southern and Eastern Africa Kaymarlin Govender, Nana K Poku, 2020-12-30 This book provides an overview of the current epidemiology of the HIV epidemic among young people in Eastern and Southern Africa ESA and examines the efforts to confront and reduce the high level of new HIV infections amongst young people Taking a multi dimensional approach to prevention the contributors discuss the many challenges facing these efforts in view of the slow progress in curbing the incidence of HIV amongst young people focusing particularly on the structural and social drivers of HIV Through an examination of these issues chapters in this book provide valuable insights on how to mitigate HIV risk among young people and what can be regarded as the catalysts to mounting credible policy and programmatic responses required to achieve epidemic control in the region The contributors draw on examples from a range of primary and secondary data sources to illustrate promising practices and challenges in HIV prevention demonstrating links between conceptual approaches to prevention and lessons learnt from implementation projects in the region Bringing together social scientists and public health experts who are actively engaged in finding effective solutions the book discusses which interventions works why they work and the limitations and gaps in our knowledge to curb the pandemic amongst young people As such it is an important read for researchers focusing on HIV AIDS and public health The Open Access version of this book available at <https://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/10.4324/9780429462818> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
