Cultural diversity in South Africa

South Africa is known as the rainbow nation.

Reason = Its society consists of people from many different cultures.

For example – Afrikaners, Cape Malays, Venda's, and Zulus.

Cultural diversity – Different languages, traditions, and religions of all our cultures

Different cultural norms and values influence personal and community matters

Our culture determines many of our values on our behalf.

For example:

Traditional rural African communities – women raise children and gather firewood and water. Men must take care of the animals and protect the woman and children as well as make all the decisions.
