The Taxation of Corporations and Shareholders Martin Norr,2013-06-29 This monograph is principally the work of the late Martin Norr He completed a draft of the entire monograph but had not yet revised it when he died in late 1972 At that time the integration of corporate and shareholder taxation was just beginning to become of widespread interest in the United States With the increasing interest thereafter the International Tax Program began to revise his manuscript making as few changes as possible in the original draft We had the benefit of criticism and analysis from Professor Richard M Bird of the University of Toronto now Director of the Institute of Policy Analysis there In addition Mr Mitsuo Sato of the Ministry of Finance in Japan gave freely of his time in carefully suggesting changes throughout the manuscript The present version of Chapter 3 owes a great deal to his additions and suggestions Thanks are also due to Professor Hugh J Ault of Boston College Law School for the Appendix containing his description of the German integration system that became effective in 1977 which was first published in Law Policy in International Business Mr Norr's interest in the subject of corporate and shareholder taxation developed while he was writing the International Tax Program's World Tax Series volume Taxation in France published in 1966 The integration of French taxes on corporations and shareholders took place just after that volume was finished but had been under discussion in France for some time before then

Corporate, Partnership, Estate And Gift Taxation James W. Pratt, William N. Kulsrud, 2005-04 McGraw Hill's Taxation of Individuals and Business Entities, 2024 Edition Brian C. Spilker, Benjamin C. Ayers, John A. Barrick, Troy Lewis, John Robinson, Connie Weaver, Ronald G. General Assembly. House of Delegates, 1927 Tax Law, State-Building and the Constitution Dominic de Cogan, 2020-08-06 This monograph looks at how tax is intertwined with constitutional law and the state in the UK It looks at a variety of topics including tax devolution scrutiny and reform of tax legislation the protection of taxpayers and the domestic legal processing of international rules and problems Tax Law State Building and the Constitution presents and interrogates five key claims First there is a clear overlap between the concerns of tax and constitutional lawyers Secondly the tax system is being deeply affected by the fast pace of constitutional change Thirdly decisions taken in the tax field are likely to have a reverse influence on the evolution of the constitution Fourthly these relationships are heavily context dependent with tax making all the difference to some ongoing constitutional controversies whilst having very little to do with others Fifthly by acknowledging tax as an important moving part within the contemporary constitution we might understand both tax and constitutional law a little better The book therefore contributes to deeper theoretical debates on the identity of tax law as a discipline the relevance of tax to public lawyers the meaning of state building in the recent history of a developed country and the importance of public finances to a wider sense of what is going on These are questions that ought to command the attention of tax and constitutional law academics as well as policy makers and reformers Runner up of the 2022 SLS Peter Birks Prize for Outstanding Legal Scholarship
