La Nouvelle Pornographie:

Exposing Myself Sita Monsef-Rao, 2008 Exposure Kathryn Banks, Joseph Harris, 2004 The notion of exposure underlies much modern thinking about identity representation ethics desire and sexuality This provocative notion is explored in a collection of essays selected from and inspired by the proceedings of a conference held in the Department of French at the University of Cambridge in 2002 The authors engage with exposure as both object and mode of representation in a range of cultural media literature critical theory visual art and film They analyse a variety of works from the medieval early modern and modern periods examining not only canonical texts such as Montaigne's Essais but also lesser studied works such as the psychoanalytic theory of Didier Anzieu the photomontage self portraits of Claude Cahun and the novel La Nouvelle Pornographie by Marie Nimier This volume thus both illustrates and more importantly interrogates the richness of the term exposure in a way that is stimulating for students and researchers alike New Approaches to Crime in French

Literature, Culture and Film Louise Hardwick, 2009 The notion of crime crosses generic disciplinary and cultural frontiers In an era of identity fraud eco crime and global terrorism this collection moves towards a reconsideration of crime in the French and Francophone literary and cultural imagination How have our conceptions of criminal behaviour developed How has the French genre of crime fiction encompassing but not limited to the polar the roman policier and film noir evolved and reinvented itself The volume adopts a number of theoretical approaches which range from sociological and criminological discourse to literary criticism and postcolonial theory by Chamoiseau Durkheim Deleuze Foucault Glissant Krafft Ebing and Todorov In a wide ranging series of innovative and challenging readings it examines ideas which include the evolving concept of crime in literature from Voltaire and censorship through to scientific constructions of criminality in the nineteenth century and in the postcolonial era both within and outside metropolitan France The volume also explores textual crimes in contemporary Martinican women's writing crime as a genre in Andrzej Walicki and Serge Arcout and Jean Meckert Sebastien Japrisot and Dominique Manotti and visual responses to crime by artist Jacques Monory and filmmaker Didier Bivel France From 1851 to the Present R. Célestin, E. DalMolin, 2016-09-23 Bringing together history literature and popular culture this book provides a cultural history of France from a period of dominance in the mid 19th century to one of decline or crisis in the first few years of the third millennium Contains both chronological narrative and a selection of primary documents in translation

Fin de millénaire French Fiction Ruth Cruickshank, 2009-10-08 The turn of the millennium in France coincided with a number of tangible crises and apocalyptic discourses and with the growth of the mass media and global market further generating and manipulating crisis In this original wide ranging but closely analytical study Cruickshank contextualizes and reads the work of four influential writers of prose fiction Angot Echenoz Houellebecq and Redonnet teasing out each one's response to this convergence She suggests that the recurrent fictional and cultural trope of the turning point has both aesthetic and critical potential Bringing together analyses spanning literature thought and culture she identifies and critiques the ways in which on the eve of the twenty first century different theoretical and fictional approaches confront the manipulation of crisis discourses Drawing on a long twentieth century of crisis thinking Cruickshank counters the perception that a postmodern model of perpetual crisis is culturally dominant and establ

The Body in Francophone Literature El Hadji Malick Ndiaye,Moussa Sow,2016-05-24 Much of Francophone literature is a response to an elaborate discourse that served to bolster colonial French notions of national grandeur and to justify expansion of French territories overseas A form of colonial exoticism saw the colonized subject as a physical cultural aesthetic and even sexual singularity Francophone writers sought to rehabilitate the status of non Western peoples who through the use of anthropometric techniques had been racially classified as inferior or primitive Drawing on various Francophone texts this collection of new essays offers a compelling study of the literary body both corporeal and figurative Topics include the embodiment of diasporic identity the body politic in prison writing women s bodies and the body s expression of trauma inflicted by genocidal violence

The Politics of Obscenity in the Age of the Gutenberg Revolution Peter Frei,Nelly Labère,2021-12-30 What does obscene mean What does it have to say about the means through which meaning is produced and received in literary artistic and more broadly social acts of representation and interaction Early modern France and Europe faced these questions not only in regard to the political religious and artistic reformations for which the Renaissance stands but also in light of the reconfiguration of its mediasphere in the wake of the invention of the printing press The Politics of Obscenity brings together researchers from Europe and the United States in offering scholars of early modern Europe a detailed understanding of the implications and the impact of obscene representations in their relationship to the Gutenberg Revolution which came to define Western modernity
