Matt K. Matsuda

La Nouvelle Calédonie Et La Transportation:

The Memory of the Modern Matt K. Matsuda, 1996 Matsuda proves his argument by visiting a remarkable array of memory sites the destruction of a monument to Napoleon during the 1871 Paris Commune the frantic selling of futures on the Paris stock exchange the state's forensic search for a vagabond rapist and murderer a child's perjured testimony on the witness stand a scientist's dissecting of the human brain the invention of cameras and the cinema The History of French Colonial Policy, 1870-1925 Stephen H. Roberts, 2019-04-23 Published in 1963 The author gives a clear and accurate account of the immense development of France as a colonial power which in an incredibly short space of time was to control one third of Africa He drew his material not only from the scanty formal literature then available but also by carefully evaluating and selecting from large mass of controversial material to be found in deliberate propaganda parliamentary debates and the often suspect official documentation Geographies of New Caledonia-Kanaky Matthias Kowasch, Simon P. J. Batterbury, 2024-04-12 This open access book provides a unique overview of geographical historical political and environmental issues facing the French overseas territory New Caledonia also called Kanaky by the indigenous Kanak people who outnumber citizens of European and other origin New Caledonia has seen a long and complex struggle for decolonization but is still on the United Nations list of Non Self Governing territories and there is little sign of change following three referendums on independence and extensive negotiations with France The archipelago possesses around a quarter of the world's nickel deposits giving it additional strategic importance when demand for the mineral is strong The islands have unique biodiversity and Caledonian coastal lagoons have been listed as UNESCO world heritage sites since 2008 The book offers detailed insights into the environmental and human geographies of the archipelago with a focus on the links between environmental protection and extensive mining operations between political independence struggles and continued wellbeing and economic development and the differing visions for the future of the islands This multidisciplinary volume one of the few to appear in English appeals to researchers students and policy makers across the environmental social and political sciences A Global History of Convicts and Penal Colonies Clare Anderson, 2018-05-17 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com It is funded by the University of Leicester Between 1415 when the Portuguese first used convicts for colonization purposes in the North African enclave of Ceuta to the 1960s and the dissolution of Stalin's gulags global powers including the Spanish Dutch Portuguese British Russians Chinese and Japanese transported millions of convicts to forts penal settlements and penal colonies all over the world A Global History of Convicts and Penal Colonies builds on specific regional archives and literatures to write the first global history of penal transportation The essays explore the idea of penal transportation as an engine of global change in which political repression and forced labour combined to produce long term impacts on economy society and identity They investigate the varied and interconnected routes convicts took to penal sites across the world and the relationship of these convict flows to other forms of punishment unfree labour military service and indigenous incarceration They also explore the lived worlds of convicts including work culture religion and intimacy and convict experience and agency Stewart's Hand Book of the Pacific Islands ,1922 The History of French Colonial Policy (1870-1925) Stephen Henry Roberts,1929 Stewart's Hand Book of the Pacific Islands Percy Stafford Allen,Percy S.
