La Main Invisible:

Caricature and French Political Culture 1830-1848 David S. Kerr, 2000-09-07 Charles Philipon 1800 1862 was the founder of the satirical illustrated press in France With the newspapers he owned and directed La Caricature and Le Charivari he led an unprecedentedly coherent and vitriolic campaign of disrespect against King Louis Philippe and his regime Using a group of young caricaturists the most talented of whom were Daumier Grandville and Travies and the collaboration of a gifted team of writers including Balzac he crafted a new language of opposition This book is the first full scholarly study of the structure of the illustrated press in the 1830s its contribution to political debate in France the dissemination of caricature and its potential as political propaganda and the links between caricature and other forms of political cultural discourse under the July Monarchy , Le Dieu du marché François Dermange, 2003 Self-Interest before Adam Smith Pierre

Force, 2003-09-04 Self Interest before Adam Smith inquires into the foundations of economic theory It is generally assumed that the birth of modern economic science marked by the publication of The Wealth of Nations in 1776 was the triumph of the selfish hypothesis the idea that self interest is the motive of human action Yet as a neo Epicurean idea this hypothesis had been a matter of controversy for over a century and Smith opposed it from a neo Stoic point of view But how can the Epicurean principles of orthodox economic theory be reconciled with the Stoic principles of Adam Smith s philosophy Pierre Force shows how Smith s theory refutes the selfish hypothesis and integrates it at the same time He also explains how Smith appropriated Rousseau s republican critique of modern commercial society and makes the case that the autonomy of economic science is an unintended consequence of Smith s republican principles Encyclopedia of French Film
