The Twenty-First Century Mechanistic Theory of Human Cognition Diego Azevedo Leite, 2020-11-30 This book presents a theoretical critical appraisal of the Mechanistic Theory of Human Cognition MTHC which is one of the most popular major theories in the contemporary field of cognitive science It analyses and evaluates whether MTHC provides a unifying account of human cognition and its explanation The book presents a systematic investigation of the internal and external consistency of the theory as well as a systematic comparison with other contemporary major theories in the field In this sense it provides a fresh look at more recent major theoretical debates in this area of scientific research and a rigorous analysis of one of its most central major theories Rigorous theoretical work is integrated with objective consideration of relevant empirical evidence making the discussions robust and clear As a result the book shows that MTHC provides a significant theoretical contribution for the field of cognitive science The content is useful for those interested in theoretical and empirical issues concerning major theories in the contemporary field of cognitive science      The Strategic Management of Place at Work

David B. Audretsch, Alice Civera, Erik E. Lehmann, Konstantin P. Leidinger, Jonah M. Otto, Laurenz Weiße, Katharine Wirsching, 2023-06-24 Global economic forces underpin political and social issues and have real impacts on the quality of life in local communities cities states and regions In the face of potential volatility leaders in every place concern themselves with how they can ensure local economic resiliency for present and future generations This book argues for the strategic management of places through intentional public policy that brings together stakeholders from the public private and nonprofit sectors to create an inclusive and sustainable economic path forward While many economists and political scientists have proposed one size fits all approaches this book puts forward a more holistic approach giving local leaders and policymakers the tools to take inventory of their local contexts and providing case study examples of how to craft public policies that create prosperous and sustainable economic conditions      Optimizing Education Through Micro-Lessons:

How to mainstream sustainability and circularity into the bioeconomy? Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,2021-08-31 In its 2020 communique the International Advisory Council on Global Bioeconomy has urged to strengthen good practices and policies to advance the global bioeconomy The transition from a fossil based economy to a bioeconomy happens at three levels technological organizational and social In particular agri food systems are key to achieve a shift to sustainable and circular production and consumption patterns since they occupy the biggest share of the bioeconomy from an economic value added perspective as well as having potential for discovery and innovation This Compendium outlines 250 sources of good practices and policies It covers the entire continuum of economic sectors that have a stake in biological knowledge and resources The Compendium therefore highlights the wide range of aspects that are included in the concept of the bioeconomy Being an inherently multisectoral process that involves potential synergies and trade offs among different sustainability objectives the implementation of bioeconomy strategies presents greater challenges than activities that are focused on a single sector The report also shows how good practices and policies contribute to the translation of bioeconomy strategies into coordinated actions for the achievement of local priorities and sustainability goals while also addressing global issues Overall the review identifies a knowledge gap Assessments do not always indicate if practices and policies have enough evidence of impact to be recommended as models that contribute to sustainability objectives of the bioeconomy To address this a context specific approach described in Chapter 5 provides support for countries to make evidence based decisions on policies and investments for the bioeconomy The approach helps to identify good practices and policies ex ante which can help achieve common sustainability objectives of bioeconomy strategies that were presented in the 2019 FAO report Towards sustainable bioeconomy Lessons learned from case studies Taken together this Compendium and the 2019 report provide practical guidelines and resources that can support decision makers and stakeholders in bioeconomy systems to make progress towards reaching sustainable outcomes
