Hurt? Stephanie de Montalk, 2015-07-01 In How Does It Hurt acclaimed poet and biographer Stephanie de Montalk tells the story of the chronic pain that has invaded her life for more than 10 years. She considers how her early experiences have been cast into fresh relief by what she has endured then goes back in time to investigate the lives and works of three writers who also lived with and wrote about pain: the consolator English social theorist Harriet Martineau 1802-1876, the vendor of happiness French novelist Alphonse Daudet 1840-1897 and the imago Polish poet Aleksander Wat 1900-1967. Through these explorations de Montalk confronts the paradox of writing about suffering where we can turn when the pain is beyond words. A unique blend of memoir, imaginative biography and poetry, How Does It Hurt is a groundbreaking contribution to the understanding of chronic pain and a spellbinding literary achievement.

Communicating Pain Stephanie de Montalk, 2018-10-26 Combining critical research with memoir, essay, poetry and creative biography, this insightful volume sensitively explores the lived experience of chronic pain. Confronting the language of pain and the paradox of writing about personal pain, Communicating Pain is a personal response to the avoidance, dismissal and isolation experienced by the author after developing intractable pelvic pain in 2003. The volume focuses on pain's infamous resistance to verbal expression, the sense of exile experienced by sufferers and the under-recognised distinction between acute and chronic pain. In doing so, it creates a platform upon which scholarly, imaginative and emotional quotients round out pain as the sum of physical actualities, mental challenges and psychosocial interactions. Additionally, this work creates a dialogue between medicine and literature. Considering the works of writers such as Harriet Martineau, Alphonse Daudet and Aleksander Wat, it enables a multi-genre narrative heightened by poetry, fictional storytelling and life writing. Coupled with academic rigour, this insightful monograph constitutes a persuasive and unique exploration of pain and the communication of suffering. It will appeal to students and researchers interested in fields such as Medical Humanities, Autobiography Studies and Sociology of Health and Illness.
