Manual Staff Stf 121:

Truth-in-lending Manual Ralph C. Clontz, James A. Douglas, 1991 The National Council for Higher Education and the Growth of the University Sub-sector in Uganda, 2002-2012 Kasozi, A.B.K., 2017-05-05 The National Council for Higher Education NCHE and the Growth of the University Sub sector in Uganda 2002 2012 narrates the experience of the Ugandan NCHE in the establishment development and regulation of higher education institutions in Uganda from 2002 to 2012 In this period student numbers in higher education institutions increased from about 65 000 to some 200 000 and university institutions from about ten to more than triple the number The book discusses the role of a regulatory agency in the delivery of higher education the relations of universities and colleges with such an agency its impact on developing university capacities and leadership in creating and refining higher education ideas The experience of Uganda s regulatory agency the NCHE in those ten years should help both the Ugandan and other African countries higher education stakeholders in sharing lessons learned from this one case study The author sees the roles of regulatory agencies as vital in the initial stages of building a higher education sub sector and in periods of system transitions such as the current journey from elite to mass systems but is of the view that the university remains the home of knowledge creation dissemination and its application in society Out in the Periphery Omar G. Encarnación, 2016-01-04 Out in the Periphery explores how Latin America a region known for its Catholic heritage and machismo culture came to embrace gay rights At the heart of this analysis is the activism of Latin America s gay rights organizations a long neglected social movement even by students of Latin American social movements Census Catalog and Guide United States.
