J. Giddy, 2012-06-14 Brian and James grew up together in Wyong Now in their early thirties they finally could afford a budget holiday overseas in the Solomon Islands There was one problem for James the day he had his passport photo taken a gust of strong wind placed a wave shape in the centre of his hair Just as they were about to start their holidays in Honiara a criminal named Chicken Hair and his brutal stand over man called No Name began to leave a trail of bodies On their trail is a local Police Inspector of the Royal Solomon Islands Police Inspector Chris believes he also should be in charge instead of an Australian sent to maintain order after the 2006 conflict While Inspector Chris is trying to solve the brutal murders Brain and James have several bad hygienic moments when they are intoxicated with a few native women At one stage the two wished they had holidayed on the Gold Coast James did have an advantage when their holiday turned sour There was a traditional tale that a white man with strange hair and spoke different English would one day find and return the missing Golden Malaita Eagle Brian and James were transported by coastal trader to a cloud covered volcanic Island On this unusual island where the natives are either half Asian or half Caucasian James is treated like a god till alcohol ruins the tribe s chance of becoming pure native again Now the adventure

On a Global Mission: The Automobiles of General Motors International Volume 3 Louis F. Fourie, 2016-12-27 Volume One traces the history of Opel and Vauxhall separately from inception through to the 1970s and thereafter collectively to 2015 Special attention is devoted to examining innovative engineering features and the role Opel has taken of providing global platforms for GM Each model is examined individually and supplemented by exhaustive supporting specification tables The fascinating history of Saab and Lotus begins with their humble beginnings and examines each model in detail and looks at why these unusual marques came under the GM Banner Included is a penetrating review of Saab through to its unfortunate demise Volume Two examines unique models and variations of Chevrolet and Buick manufactured in the Southern Hemisphere and Asia but never offered in North America Daewoo Wuling and Baojun are other Asian brands covered in detail This volume concludes with recording the remarkable early success of Holden and its continued independence through to today Volume Three covers the smaller assembly operations around the world and the evolution of GM's export operations A brief history of Isuzu Subaru and Suzuki looks at the three minority interests GM held in Asia The GM North American model specifications are the most comprehensive to be found in a single book Global and regional sales statistics are included GM executives and management from around the globe are listed with the roles they held An index ensures that these volumes serve as the ideal reference source on GM
