MGMT 1001: Principal of Management

Ms Arthurine Webb

November 11th, 2022

Human resources play a vital role within a business, organisation or company. The Human resources department of a business is responsible for sourcing, vetting, hiring, and training successful applicants and directs employee-benefit programs (Kenton, 2022). While Human Resources Managers (HRMs) must be equipped with the knowledge, skill set, and composure to meet guidelines that upkeep performance. This department plans programs that facilitate employees to meet organisational objectives. In addition, HRMS can motivate workers to drive strong morale in crises such as daily life-altering pandemics. This is true for all workers, from top-level managers to entry-level staff.

Consequently, the pandemic has affected businesses worldwide with either increased profits or deficits, downscaling of operations, employee job security, and mental and physical health. This process will help the human resource manager acquire, allocate, and utilise human resources to manage better and achieve business goals and objectives. Therefore, the duties of
