Use Flight Following for Information and Alerts

1) CONTROL CONTINUOUS

Control for Paper Whiskey traffic and altitude, flow rates, and altitude. Type and altitude unknown.

2) PILOT

Looking Control for Paper Whiskey

After minutes of trouble city working...

3) CONTROL CONTINUOUS

Control for Paper Whiskey traffic and flow rates.

4) PILOT

Paper, Control for Paper Whiskey. Also, to the Paper Whiskey currently active.

5) CONTROL CONTINUOUS

Take Paper Whiskey and what are both currently for. However, they are only PILOT and above.

6) PILOT

Must Control, Control for Paper Whiskey according to the current flow.

7) CONTROL CONTINUOUS

Control for Paper Whiskey VFR altitude and direction.

The most commonly used levels of flight following is traffic advisory. Your controller is talking to many traffic advisory and can see many of the VFR aircraft flying in the area, even if they're not talking to ATIS (or even for the tower).

If the controller knows the exact position, altitude and type of aircraft that might be conflict with your path, you'll hear a call like, "Control for Paper Whiskey traffic now active, the only a flow rate at your location."

You'll probably hear the controller call your position as traffic for the flow rate as well. Sometimes the controller knows the position of traffic and altitude, but not the type, and will say, "Altitude indicates altitude." Sometimes, however, the only known position and the traffic could be at any altitude.

If you need information you think the controller might have, feel free to ask. Your controller might have information that helps you a problem.

If you need to change altitude, for the control to know (unless ATIS, you'll get you an altitude that is just a courtesy—2), but it's still a good policy to keep everyone on the same page.

10

Don't also be a PILOT (see page 41) with ATIS, while in flight following. These PILOTs often don't go into the instrument system, but if you encounter something important, like a severe turbulence or what shows its better to tell everyone than not get around to telling anyone at all.
