The Future is Black Carl A. Grant, Ashley N. Woodson, Michael J. Dumas, 2020-07-29 The Future is Black presents Afropessimism as an opportunity to think in provocative and disruptive ways about race racial equality multiculturalism and the pursuit of educational justice The vision is not a coherent delimited conversation but a series of experiences with Afropessimism as a radical analytic situated within critical Black studies Activists educators caregivers kin and all those who love Black children are invited to make sense of the contemporary Black condition including a theorization of Black suffering Black fugitivity and Black futurity These three concepts provide the foundation for the book's inquiry and contribute to the examination of Black educational opportunity experience and outcomes The book not only explores how schooling becomes complicit in and serves as a site of Black material and psychic suffering but also examines the possibilities of education as a site of fugitivity of hope of escape and as a space within which to imagine an emancipation yet to be realized It's Not

About Grit Steven Goodman, 2018-06 Speaking out against decades of injustice and challenging deficit perceptions of young learners and their families Its Not About Grit pulls back the veil revealing the social systems that marginalize and stigmatize mostly poor urban students of color and their communities At the same time author Steven Goodman for nearly 35 years founder and director of NYCs highly acclaimed Educational Video Center EVC shows the tremendous intelligence resilience and sense of agency of these students Through the students in school and out of school experiences enhanced with curriculum guides and award winning video clips from EVC Goodman encourages educators to make a difference and demonstrates how to create safe and inclusive spaces where their teaching responds to students culture race gender sexual orientation language housing status and ability Teachers will use this book to develop a pedagogy of transformative teaching
