Love And Loss A Poetic View:

Re-discovering Age(ing) Núria Casado-Gual, Emma Domínguez Rué, Maricel Oró-Piqueras, 2019-06-13 Since Mentor Telemachus advisor in Homer's Odyssey gave name to the figure of the wise teacher fictional representations of mentoring have permeated classic and contemporary cultural texts of different literary genres such as fiction poetry and life writing The contributions of this volume explore wisdom in old age through a series of narratives of mentorship which either from a critical or a personal perspective undermine ageist views of later life The Poetic Vision of Robert Penn Warren Victor H. Strandberg, 2021-12-14 Though it has won the Pulitzer Prize the National Book Award and the Bollingen Prize the poetry of Robert Penn Warren still is not widely or well understood In this study Victor H Strandberg redresses this imbalance by providing a comprehensive survey of the poetic canon of this gifted complex and much neglected poet Warren writes in the tradition of Western poets concerned with the painful experience of a forced one way passage from innocence into the world's stew of time and loss This passage Strandberg explains results for Warren in bifurcation of the self into warring segments a clean idealistic surface ego and a polluted undiscovered self in the unconscious Revelation of the dirty part of human personality is tellingly evoked in many of Warren's major works As the poet's vision expands however these conflicting elements are unified in a mystic osmosis of being whereby the world which once provoked fear and disgust may now be totally loved In addition to close analysis both of individual poems and of the poet's overall development Strandberg reviews critical opinion of Warren's poetry over the last three decades and assesses his place among fellow poets Both as prophecy and as art he concludes Robert Penn Warren's poetry is so significant versatile and excellent as to rank him among the finest and most fertile talents of his age 90 Days Peter Scamardella, 2013-03-08 Have you ever loved and then lost 90 Days is a story of the love one man felt for another and the loss he went through when that relationship ended It takes the form of ninety poems representing the daily thoughts and feelings of the author over a three month period Some are simple and others more complex but each was conceived within the twenty four hour period from one day to the next In 90 Days you will find poems that will make you laugh and cry blush and dream From speaking with angels and sailing the ocean with pirates to dancing until he is ready to drop Pete Scamardella takes us on his journey through ninety days of sadness growth and change Sometimes one mistake can alter your view of the world in amazing ways Why not look and see if you can find some of the thoughts and wishes you always wanted to say to a lover in his tales Art and Love in Renaissance Italy Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Kimbell Art Museum, 2008 Many famous artworks of the Italian Renaissance were made to celebrate love marriage and family They were the pinnacles of a tradition dating from early in the era of commemorating betrothals marriages and the birth of children by commissioning extraordinary objects maiolica glassware jewels textiles paintings that were often also exchanged as gifts This volume is the first comprehensive survey of artworks arising from Renaissance rituals of love and marriage and makes a major contribution to our understanding of Renaissance art in its broader cultural context The impressive range of works gathered in these pages extends from birth trays painted in the early fifteenth century to large canvases on mythological themes that Titian painted in the mid 1500s Each work of art would have been recognized by contemporary viewers for its prescribed function within the private domestic domain
