

Hello all

Judging by the amount of software news we saw this week, you can tell that summer holidays are definitely over. September started off with the release of Opera 10.5, which is a very nice browser featuring a bunch of new features. Can it be able to match up to its competitors? Try it out.

And the announcement was the 90-day trial version of Windows 7 software has made available for download. If you didn't manage to get it before it expired, this might be a good opportunity to take a look at Microsoft's new apology for Vista.

But into the world of new software releases, Niamh and I also looked at some tips and tricks for certain applications that have been released recently. Here are some ideas for you: follow my
