

A complex geometric pattern is centered on the page. It consists of a large square with an inscribed diamond. The diamond's vertices are at the midpoints of the square's sides. At each of the four corners of the square, there is a small square. The corners of these small squares are marked with small circles. Arcs are drawn between these corner circles: one arc at the top-left corner, one at the top-right, one at the bottom-left, and one at the bottom-right. These arcs intersect to form a central diamond shape, which is slightly offset from the main diamond. The text "BOOK of PATTERNS" is centered within this central diamond.
