Integrated Practice on the Front Line Liz Garrett, Sal Lodge, 2009 Dimond's Legal Aspects of Nursing Richard A. Griffith, Bridgit Dimond, Iwan Dowie, 2019 Written specifically for student nurses as well as those already in practice Dimond's Legal Aspects of Nursing is your essential practical guide to the legal principles you need to be aware of in your everyday nursing practice Building on previous editions of the book by Bridgit Dimond this 8th edition has been significantly reworked by a new author team with extensive experience in teaching nursing law It has also been fully updated and revised in line with recent legal developments and the new Nursing standards to ensure it continues to meet the requirements of nursing law modules Medical Ethics Today British Medical Association, 2012-01-31 This is your source for authoritative and comprehensive guidance from the British Medical Association BMA Medical Ethics Department covering both routine and highly contentious medico legal issues faced by health care professionals The new edition updates the information from both the legal and ethical perspectives and reflects developments surrounding The Mental Capacity Act Human Tissue Act and revision of the Human Fertilisation and Embryology Act Legal Aspects of Occupational Therapy Bridgit C. Dimond, 2011-08-02 Since publication of the original edition in 1996 this book has established itself as an essential text for occupational therapists It offers an understanding of the law relating to their practice but is written to be accessible for those who have no prior legal knowledge The text provides valuable information for occupational therapists employed in health and social services as well as the law relevant to private practitioners The book includes chapters on all the main client groups and presents the relevant specialist law Students and teachers of occupational therapy will find the chapters on professional registration education training and research of particular interest The third edition has been substantially revised to cover significant changes in legislation since the previous version There is also a brand new chapter on the subject of death and dying Legal Aspects of Occupational Therapy remains a key resource for the occupational therapy student practitioner and service manager London Boroughs at 50 Tony Travers, 2015-11-24 It is the year 1965 Mary Quant introduces the miniskirt to society in her shop in Chelsea the Dalek style Post Office Tower is opened and the Beatles play their last ever live UK tour date Most importantly on 1 April a new system of city government is introduced and London's thirty two boroughs are born revolutionising the capital into the place we know today New names had to be chosen councillors elected and policies formed these boroughs and the Greater London Council between them took control of housing roads planning schools and social services Half a century on and though the GLC was abolished in 1986 the boroughs live on now working alongside a new metropolitan government headed by mayors Ken Livingstone and since 2008 Boris Johnson In London's Boroughs at 50 Tony Travers examines the governing system that developed alongside the growing metropolis and by identifying the unique path each has taken over the years tells the fascinating story of how our remarkably diverse boroughs have not only survived but actively shaped both the city and the lives of its inhabitants in their impressive fifty year history

Child Protection Freda Briggs, 2018-10-01 This exceptionally well researched book's intention is to reveal what is really happening in our society and to spur people into action to turn this shameful and complex problem around so that abuse stops and healing can begin. It should be a compulsory handbook for all whose work involves children especially in the legal system all human services schools pre schools and foster care. It covers all aspects of child abuse and neglect and presents recent case studies of acts of abuse and the ways they have been dealt with in recent times. It is books such as this that get the message out there so that something is done in this supposedly enlightened age.

Memory, Imagination, Justice David Gurnham, 2009-01-01 Through the creative use of literary analysis Memory Imagination Justice provides a critical and highly original discussion of contemporary topics in criminal law and bioethics. Using popular and classical texts by authors including Shakespeare Dickens Euripides Kafka the Brothers Grimm Huxley and Margaret Atwood this volume sheds fresh light on such controversial legal and ethical issues as passionate homicide life sentences child pornography and genetic enhancement.

The Protection of Children in England Herbert Baron Laming, 2009 Following the death of 17 month old Baby P in Haringey north London Lord Laming was commissioned by the Secretary of State for Children Schools and Families to report urgently on the progress being made across the country to implement effective arrangements for safeguarding children. Much progress has been made since the green paper Every child matters change for children Cm 5860 2003 ISBN 9780101586023 the Children Act 2004 ISBN 9780105431046 and Working together to safeguard children 2006 ISBN 9780112711872 but in March 2008 37 000 children were the subjects of care orders and 29 000 children were the subject of child protection plans. 55 children were killed by their parents or by someone known to them in 2007/08. Lord Laming proposes immediate action on six tasks: 1 the setting of explicit strategic priorities for the protection of children and young persons for each of the key frontline services; 2 establishing a powerful National Safeguarding Delivery Unit to bring coherence and drive to implement change in departments and agencies whose work is to protect children; 3 addressing the inadequacy of the training and supply of frontline social workers without the necessary specialist knowledge and skills; social workers must not be allowed to practise in child protection; 4 health service workers must engage more and more confidently with child protection work; 5 resources devoted to police child protection teams and their training must be increased; 6 shortening of the time taken in court processes relating to the care of children. A total of 58 recommendations are made in the areas of leadership and accountability support for children interagency working children's workforce improvement and challenge organisation and finance legal matters.

The House Magazine, 2009 Working with Children and Young People Lindsay O'Dell, Stephen Leverett, 2011 Includes bibliographical references and index Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 2010 The Stationery Office Annual Catalogue Stationery Office (Great Britain), 2009 The story of Baby P Jones, Ray, 2014-07-16 In England in 2007 Peter Connolly a 17 month old little boy known initially in the media reporting as Baby P died following terrible neglect and abuse. Fifteen months later his mother her boyfriend and the boyfriend's brother were sent to prison. But media attention turned on those who worked to protect children especially the social workers and their managers who became the focus of the reporting and of the blame. Five years later they are still harassed by press reporters. This book tells what happened to Baby P how the story was told and became focused on the social workers its threatening consequences for those who work to protect children and its considerable impact on the child protection system in England. This is the first book to draw together all evidence available on this high profile case and will make a unique and crucial contribution to the topic. It will make essential reading for everyone who is concerned about child protection and the care of children and about the media's impact.

Childhood and Violence in the Western Tradition L. W. B. Brockliss, Heather Montgomery, 2010. This text is divided into six. The first four deal with different manifestations through the centuries of what would be today considered violence and neglect. The fifth and sixth chapters look at the various violent and non violent strategies used by children as coping mechanisms in what to us seems a very harsh world.

The Silent State Heather Brooke, 2010. Revealing that the MPs expenses scandal of Britain is merely the tip of the iceberg this title exposes the shocking and often farcical lack of transparency at various levels of government. It argues that without proper access to the information that citizens pay for Britain can never be a true democracy.

The Uses of Pessimism Roger Scruton, 2010. In this provocative and passionately argued book Roger Scruton proposes that the greatest harm and havoc has been wrought on the world by those who have presented themselves as optimists and idealists whether of the left or of the right. Rejecting such ideals we should instead seek to replace such irrational and pernicious exuberance with a humane pessimism.

Baby P - It Must Never Happen Again John McShane, 2009-09-28. The tragic and violent death of 17 month old Baby P at the hands of those who were supposed to love and care for him has sickened the nation. That such unimaginable cruelty could be unleashed on an innocent child and fail to be picked up on by the authorities has led to a public outcry and a media storm. This is a comprehensive look at the events leading up to the death of Baby P. A recent investigation has found that there was poor communication between authorities a repeated failure to take into account the child's history and inaccurate documentation of events by Haringey Council. Child protection plans were heavily criticized in the inspection report for being disorganized with little analysis of the child and no clear decision making. With the three perpetrators awaiting sentencing and politicians debating what can be done now and in the future the public are left angry and bewildered as just how this was allowed to happen.
