International Faculty in Higher Education Maria Yudkevich,Philip G. Altbach,Laura E. Rumbley,2016-11-25 In an interconnected and globally competitive environment faculty mobility across countries has become widespread yet is little understood Grounded in qualitative methodology this volume offers a cutting edge examination of internationally mobile academics today and explores the approaches and strategies that institutions pursue to recruit and integrate international teachers and scholars into local universities Providing a range of research based insights from case studies in key countries this resource offers higher education scholars and administrators a comparative perspective helping to explain the impact that international faculty have on the local university as well as issues of retention promotion salaries and the challenges faced by these internationally mobile academics

Quality Assurance in Higher Education in Eastern and Southern Africa
Peter Neema-Abooki, 2021-08-23

This book examines the critical aspect of quality assurance maintenance of competitive standards in African higher education. It explores both the micro and macro levels of continental African higher education regulatory authorities and analyses different institutional regional and national practices for moving towards continental quality assurance approaches. Contributed to by scholars across Eastern and Southern Africa, the book considers conceptual practical epistemological and policy dimensions of quality and quality assurance especially in relation to higher education in Africa. It therefore draws on research and local expertise to open up debate about how to assure and enhance the quality of higher education providing a comprehensive review of eight countries and considers societal challenges. It aims to satisfy the need of more thoughtful and critical works on African education as produced by African educators. The uniqueness of this book lies in integrating both the theoretical and practical dimensions of quality to devise appropriate strategies for ensuring quality and standards in higher education in continental Africa and beyond. This authoritative book advocates for a timely discussion around the provision of good quality higher education and research in African universities and will be of great interest to academics policy makers researchers and post graduate students in the fields of higher education comparative education and African studies.
