My Grandfathers Blessings Stories Of Strength Refuge And Belonging:

My Grandfather's Blessings Rachel Naomi Remen, 2001-04-01 In My Grandfather's Blessings Rachel Naomi Remen a cancer physician and master storyteller uses her luminous stories to remind us of the power of our kindness and the joy of being alive Dr Remen's grandfather an orthodox rabbi and scholar of the Kabbalah saw life as a web of connection and knew that everyone belonged to him and that he belonged to everyone He taught her that blessing one another is what fills our emptiness heals our loneliness and connects us more deeply to life Life has given us many more blessings than we have allowed ourselves to receive My Grandfather's Blessings is about how we can recognize and receive our blessings and bless the life in others Serving others heals us Through our service we will discover our own wholeness and the way to restore hidden wholeness in the world

The Grandparent Vocation Richard P. Olson, 2022-10-17 Many grandparents experience a surge of joy with the birth or adoption of a grandchild For years afterward time together is eagerly coveted pictures are treasured and displayed and multiple gifts along with various kinds of support are gladly provided Richard Olson a retired minister professor of theology and grandparent many times over presents the unconditional love of a grandparent as indicative of a vocation a calling from God He explores the vocation of grandparent in all of its multiple dimensions of being and doing Informed by a biblical perspective the book explores the author's personal journey of grandparenting and includes conversations with a diverse set of other grandparents Olson examines biblical examples of grandparenting and suggests that the grandparent vocation has possibilities that often go unnoticed These include care enjoyment and response to issues throughout a grandchild's growth He also addresses concerns for our grandchildren's future world and how grandparents can engage in mutual conversation about faith morals and values in a changing world In addition Olson discusses increasingly common relationship types such as grandparents serving as primary caregivers adults becoming step grandparents through marriage interreligious family systems and grandparents handling children with special needs The book includes questions for personal or group reflection

A Generous Presence Rochelle Melander, 2006-08-28 A Generous Presence is a collection of story driven essays about the philosophy tools and work of coaching that is designed to support all spiritual leaders in deepening and enriching their personal and professional relationships By practicing the coaching tools Rochelle Melander offers spiritual leaders will be better equipped to guide those they work with toward accepting the past creating a life vision and setting goals for the future Additionally the tools provided in this book will help leaders understand themselves and enable them to strengthen their definitions for healthy living raise their awareness about their own life and relationship skills and improve their skills in relating to individuals and groups

We Can Be Brave Mariann Edgar Budde, 2025-10-21 Bishop Mariann Edgar Budde is no stranger to bravery in the face of bullies In this adaptation of her New York Times bestselling How We Learn to Be Brave Decisive Moments in Life and Faith Bishop Budde and acclaimed novelist Bryan Bliss share lessons in how to learn to be brave in life's hardest moments The decisive moments in life even in the life of a young person are those pivot points when we are called on to push past our fears and act courageously in the face of injustice and bullying In How We Learn to Be Brave Bishop Mariann Budde shows readers examples of how to respond even in the toughest times Bravery is not a singular occurrence it is a journey that we can choose to undertake every day and it begins when we are young Budde explores the range of decisive moments people of all ages encounter from the most visible and dramatic the decision to go to the internal and personal the decision to stay to brave choices made with an eye toward the future the decision to start those born of suffering the decision to accept that which we did not choose and those that come as surprises the decision to step up to the plate Drawing on examples relevant to young readers ranging from Harry Potter to Martin Luther King Jr she weaves together personal experiences with stories from scripture history and pop culture of how adults and kids throughout history have faced these moments and heeded the call to be brave in challenging times

Caresharing Marty Richards, MSW, LCSW, 2011-04-01 Rebalancing the Roles in Caregiving So All Involved Are Supported When you care for someone who is dealing with the complexities of aging illness or disability you share intense emotions and form deep bonds You each have the opportunity to recognize what is most deeply human and most deeply Divine in the other This sense of reciprocal sharing between the caregiver care receiver and with others around you is the essence of the dance in caresharing from the Prelude The word caregiver typically suggests someone doing all the giving for a frail physically or mentally challenged or aging person who is doing all the receiving Marty Richards proposes a rebalanced approach of caresharing From this perspective the cared for and the carer share a deep sense of connection Each has strengths and resources Each can teach the other Each can share in grief hope love and wisdom Richards shows you how to move from independent caregiving to interdependent caregiving by engaging the spiritual and emotional aspects of caring for a loved one Whether you are a daughter or son a husband or wife a sibling long term partner or good friend Caresharing offers a multilayered reciprocal process that will help you keep your spirit and your loved one's spirit alive in challenging times Sharing Wisdom What the Frail Teach the Well Sharing Roles Reinventing Family Roles in Sharing Care Sharing Soul to Soul A Special Relationship with People with Dementia Sharing Grief Dealing with the Little Losses and the Big Ones Sharing Forgiveness A Key Spiritual Journey Sharing Hope and Heart An Active Process One Step at a Time

101 Healing Stories for Kids and Teens George W. Burns, 2005 George W Burns guides the reader through the effective therapeutic process of storytelling with children and teens He provides pragmatic advice on presenting oral visual and play based metaphors in therapy and offers techniques for creating your own healing stories for children and adolescents

The Journal of Alternative and Complementary Medicine, 2002 Healing with Art and Soul Kathy Luethje, 2009 This fascinating collection of essays contains a variety of perspectives about the use of expressive arts for facilitating physical and emotional healing Each author within brings a fresh approach and unique experiences to their writing Within these pages you will find many ideas for the use of the arts and can learn how to engage the inner layers of the self that allow natural healing processes of the body and soul to flourish When we fully engage an art modality we find ourselves in a place in our consciousness that could be called healingspace where we feel ourselves whole and re member ourselves as well From psychic trauma to physical illness dis ease of many kinds may be addressed through the various techniques discussed here The tools offered by some authors are population specific and age appropriate while several authors have given us the philosophical underpinnings for it all While the authors within represent the grassroots voices of this new and rapidly expanding field several of them have developed their own methods for using the arts and have thriving practices Our approach is wholistic Music visual arts movement dance and poetry are discussed as separate modalities and in combination with one another in a process or flow The reader will engage in our experiences with these modalities as they have been lived The complementary CD that accompanies this book will allows the listener to have a full sound experience of toning If a rationale is needed for establishing arts programs in medical centers or other health facilities it can be found here The book offers tools for self development and for group facilitation Those wanting to expand their healing practice through the use of the arts will find the book to be a faithful guide Anyone wishing for a fuller understanding of how the arts may work to facilitate healing will find much food for thought within these pages Talking Book Topics ,2008-05 Shambhala Sun ,2000 The Wounded Leader Richard H. Ackerman,Pat Maslin-Ostrowski,2002-04-05 These are the questions at the heart of the stories in The Wounded Leader In these stories leaders struggle to make sense of their wounding experiences We meet a principal who felt undermined by a contentious staff another whose early mistakes ignited rumors and discontent a leader who felt shunned when she took a position at a failing school and a superintendent at odds with the school board Jacket Improv Wisdom Patricia Ryan Madson,2005-05-03 Shows how to apply the maxims of improvisational theater to real life challenges Epiphanies Ann Jauregui,2003 In a quiet moment in therapy a breakthrough comes the miracle of the new Epiphany is defined by Webster s as a sudden insight into the reality or essential meaning of something But my favorite part of the definition says psychotherapist Ann Jauregui tells us that the revelation is usually brought on by some simple homely or commonplace experience Something big is occasioned by something little something easily missed And it unfolds from there sometimes as a flash sometimes in exquisite slow motion out of conventional time and space and language Look at this you whisper as you see something about the universe you ve never seen before And look at this you whisper too seeing yourself seeing it The universe is bigger than it was a minute ago and so are you In this intimate lyrical integration of psychology and spirituality Dr Jauregui shares the stories of nine clients casting light on moments that just came bringing surprise comfort and joy Shyly we venture out with these stories she writes into a world still in the thrall of a reluctant science and its cousin a reluctant psychotherapy We are the beneficiaries invited into a sparkling conversation that explores these life changing surprises and our own Response ,2002 Beyond Self-esteem Thomas J. Cottle,2003 In Beyond Self Esteem Thomas J Cottle argues that America s preoccupation with notions of self esteem and self regard not only does not reflect the fundamental nature of the self but leads to selfish behavior and an inability to devote one's self to friendships. The self Cottle writes is predicated on social relationships and more specifically on the affirmation each of us offers to the other as well as the degree of responsibility we find ourselves willing to take for one another. It is Cottle's contention reinforced by his theoretical positions and by the narrative accounts of children and adults alike that affirmation of and the assumption of responsibility for other people remain the most ethical human actions.

Dancing with Fear Leila Peltosaari, 2005 Nashim, 2006 New Age, 2000 The Ecology of Exercise Jan Boller, 2001 Living With Colon Cancer Eliza Wood Livingston, 2005-09-06

Despite the efforts of Katie Couric to draw attention to the importance of colonoscopy screening for the detection of colon cancer, this cancer still does not receive the publicity devoted to breast, lung, and prostate cancer. Yet colorectal cancer is the third most common malignancy in the world and is the second leading cause of death from cancer next to lung cancer. As a result of the silence surrounding this disease, colon cancer patients and their families can feel isolated without the support and information networks available to those coping with more publicized illnesses. In this helpful and inspiring book, Eliza Wood Livingston provides a wealth of practical information about colon cancer while telling of her own heroic battle against this challenging disease and her survival after a bleak diagnosis. Designed to provide both vital information and emotional support, Livingston's story will help anyone faced with the difficult ordeals of surgery, chemotherapy, colostomy, and the emotional roller coaster that patients often experience. At every stage of facing these challenging hurdles, she describes to readers what they can expect, guides them to be their own advocates, and ask the right questions of medical personnel, and effectively conveys the comforting message that they need never feel alone. A very reader-friendly text with many useful sidebars highlighting important points makes this accessible book easy to follow for average readers. Livingston points out that while society seems more willing to recognize and openly discuss other life-threatening illnesses, a sense of shame and secrecy persists regarding colorectal cancer. Her personal story of courage and complete candor about her condition go a long way toward dispelling the fear and embarrassment often associated with colon cancer. Most important, she gives fellow patients and their families hope that they too can triumph over this serious disease.
