the thirteenth century and the early days of the university itself the direct residual legatee of two medieval academic halls usually precarious non corporate licensed student hostels that dominated Oxford s first quarter millenium providing teaching accommodation and the model for later more solidly established endowed colleges Hart Hall c 1280 1740 and Magdalen Hall c 1480 1874 and the failed first Hertford College 1740 1816 On a small intimate but precise scale Hertford and its precursors map not only the internal history of the university but also the wider social political religious and educational settings over seven centuries the creation of a medieval literate clerisy sixteenth century humanism gentrification and Reformation seventeenth century religious and political upheaval and Civil War the post Restoration triumph of Tory Oxford the latitudinarian eighteenth century the beginnings of empire nineteenth century imperialism plutocracy and reform twentieth century slow democratisation and twenty first century technology Based at every stage on deep trawls through rich much hitherto unexplored archival evidence and lit by close portraits of dons grandees scholars students and staff through the centuries this book charts a story of repeated dislocation precarity ingenuity and renewal very different from the more familiar image of Oxford s established grandeur and serene progress towards modernity
