

4.5 Document control

4.5.1 Document approval and issue

The supplier shall establish and maintain procedures to control all documents and data that relate to the requirements of this International Standard. These documents shall be reviewed and approved for adequacy by authorized personnel prior to issue. The control shall ensure that

- a. the pertinent issues of appropriate documents are available at all locations where operations essential to the effective functioning of the quality system are performed;
- b. obsolete documents are promptly removed from all points of issue or use.

4.5.2 Document changes/modifications

Changes to documents shall be reviewed and approved by the same functions/organizations that performed the original review and approval unless specifically designated otherwise. The designated organizations shall have access to pertinent background information upon which to base their review and approval.

Where practicable, the nature of the change shall be identified in the document or the appropriate attachments.

A master list or equivalent document control procedure shall be established to identify the current revision of documents in order to preclude the use of non-applicable documents.

Documents shall be re-issued after a practical number of changes have been made.
