Edinburgh Companion to Virginia Woolf and Transnational Perspectives Mine Ozyurt Kilic, Sayaka Okumura, Monica Latham, Alice Davis Keane, Maria Rita Drumond Viana, Elisa Bolchi, 2025-09-30 The Edinburgh Companion to Virginia Woolf and Transnational Perspectives considers the many steps of cultural mediation that have produced the varied versions of Woolf that readers and viewers encounter in national and transnational contexts. Organised in three parts, this international multi-authored collection explores how these many Woolfs emerge in countries beyond Western Europe and North America, including Brazil, Lithuania, Japan, Turkey, and the Philippines. The chapters in the first part explore how Woolf's works are edited, translated, produced, and read in many languages, media platforms, and disciplines, both historically and contemporarily. The second part focuses on Woolf's legacy and on how Woolf lives on in the works of contemporary artists and cultural creatives. Given the importance of academics in mediating this reception, the third and final section reads Woolf through new critical perspectives, also focusing on the more recent reception she is enjoying on the web.

Negotiating Gender and Sexuality in Contemporary Turkey Jaspal Kaur Singh, Mary Lou O'Neil, 2016 Turkey is often visualized as a modern nation-state having a perfect balance of Eastern and Western cultural mores and traditions within dominant ideological constructions and representations, but on closer inspection, one can detect conflicts and contradictions within various texts, particularly in regards to depictions of gender and sexual identity. Upon its foundation as a nation, Turkey embarked on a state-centered, elite-driven path toward modernization and Westernization while also seeking to produce a monolithic culture. At the time, it was widely believed that

Turkey could not rank among modern Western countries without the emancipation of women As a result of the founding of the Republic and Turkey's quest for a unified culture women were granted a number of legal rights and enjoined to take up their place in the public sphere In recent years this model of state centered secular modernity and state feminism has come under intense scrutiny and criticism as Islamists Kurds feminists and others demand their claims for recognition and force a rethinking of current understandings of Turkish identity and subjectivity specifically regarding gender and the place and role of women in society These controversies contradictions and ambiguities are reflected in women's lives and are waged by various factions over women's bodies within ideological constructions of identity and this study seeks to examine these disjunctures and contradictions as reflected in modern Turkish literature and culture Negotiating Gender and Sexuality in Contemporary Turkey is an essential tool for scholars and students of Middle Eastern literature Turkish literature and culture gender and sexuality studies modern and postmodern literature postcolonial and feminist literature and studies cultural studies religious studies and women's studies and seeks to place a microscopic view on a marginalized and embattled group
