Early Modern Streets Danielle van den Heuvel, 2022-12-23 For the first time Early Modern Streets unites the diverse strands of scholarship on urban streets between circa 1450 and 1800 and tackles key questions on how early modern urban society was shaped and how this changed over time Much of the lives of urban dwellers in early modern Europe were played out in city streets and squares By exploring urban spaces in relation to themes such as politics economies religion and crime this edited collection shows that streets were not only places where people came together to work shop and eat but also to fight celebrate show their devotion and express their grievances The volume brings together scholars from different backgrounds and applies new approaches and methodologies to the historical study of urban experience In doing so Early Modern Streets provides a comprehensive overview of one of the most dynamic fields of scholarship in early modern history Accompanied by over 50 illustrations Early Modern Streets is the perfect resource for all students and scholars interested in urban life in early modern Europe

Transforming Public Space through Play Gregor Mews, 2022-04-21 This book provides an empirical analysis of the concept of play as a form of spatial practice in urban public spaces The introduced City Play Framework CPF is a practical urban analysis tool that allows urban designers landscape architects and researchers to develop a shared awareness when opening up this window of possibility for adventure Two case studies substantiate and illustrate the development process and testing of the framework in Canberra Australia and Potsdam Germany The appropriation of public spaces that transcend boundaries can facilitate an intrinsic connection between people and their immediate environment towards a more joyful ontological state of human existence in which imagination co creation and a sense of agency are key elements of the design approach The framework presents an alternative understanding of public spaces and public life reflecting on theory and its implications for practice in a post pandemic world in dense urban centres A bridge between theory and practice this book explores possibilities on what future design ought to be when openness and ambiguity are consciously integrated parts of practice and process The book presents a valuable discussion on public space and play for academic audiences across a wide range of disciplines such as landscape architecture urban design planning architecture and urban sociology which is informative for future practice     The Cumulative Book Index ,1997 A world list of books in the English language     AB Bookman's Weekly ,1996     The English Buildings Book Philip Wilkinson,Peter Ashley,2006 This is the most comprehensive single volume on English architecture for the general reader It is a visual cornucopia and a tribute to the diversity of the English built environment which is among the richest and most diverse in the world Over 700 buildings are described and illustrated and they range from the architectural icons to the less noticeable but equally fascinating buildings of England s towns and villages     Rome Resurgent Peter J. Heather,2018 The era of the Emperor Justinian 527 68 intersects the fall of the western half of the Roman Empire in the fifth century and the collapse of the east in the face of rampant Arab invasions in the seventh Determined to reverse the losses Rome suffered in the fifth century Justinian s stubborn aggression in the face of all adversity not least the plague led the eastern Empire to overreach itself making it vulnerable to the Islamic takeover of its richest territories in the seventh century which turned the great East Roman Empire of late antiquity into its pale Byzantine shadow of the Middle Ages Rome Resurgent promises to introduce to a wide readership this fascinating but unjustly overlooked chapter in ancient warfare     The Rural New-Yorker ,1923     The Country Gentleman ,1927     Biennial Report of the North Carolina Library Commission North Carolina Library Commission,1926     Report of the North Carolina Library Commission North Carolina Library Commission,1926     Report North Carolina Library Commission,1926     School Education ,1916     Otto E.
