Life Science Paper 2012 Grade 1mpumalanga:

Schooling for Sustainable Development in Africa Heila Lotz-Sisitka, Overson Shumba, Justin Lupele, Di Wilmot, 2016-11-11 This book considers the scope and dynamics of Education for Sustainable Development ESD and learning in schools in Africa It explores the conditions and processes that support such learning and examines how ESD in schooling can improve the quality and relevance of education The quality of education has been defined internationally as a key concern for educational institutions around the world including schools in Africa The models of quality are often limited to performance based approaches and or inclusive approaches The contributions in this book show that there is more to a discussion on educational quality in Africa than performance success and or inclusion The chapters explain how ESD brings a new relevance to education in Africa and at the same time sounds the beginning of a new concept of quality education The volume presents a collection of experiences in creating and supporting quality learning processes through a variety of ESD practices

African Schools as Enabling Spaces Vanessa Scherman, Linda Liebenberg, 2023-03-31 Using African schools as case studies this book presents an implementation framework that can be used by schools internationally to drive social change and support their role as enabling spaces allowing learners to thrive Recognising the increase in demands violent conflicts lack of stability and social strain prevalent within the current African school system this book covers the challenges that negatively impact children s development by understanding and presenting a framework that ensures a holistic social and educational support system can be created for students Featuring contributions from a broad range of leading scholars the book ultimately addresses the critical need in academic and practice research for the importance of schools in building civil societies Arguing for the importance of schools as places of stability social inclusivity and communities of care this book will have direct relevance to academics researchers and post graduate students in the field of education policy international and comparative education and character education Those working in school leadership management and administration environments will also benefit from this volume
