of socially progressive forces By bringing theories of change from the emergent land governance orthodoxy into dialogue with the ethnographic evidence from across the African continent and beyond concepts masquerading as universal and self evident truths are provincialized and their role in commodifying customary land and entrenching colonial futurities put on display In doing so the volume brings wider academic debates surrounding productive forms of power into the heart of the land grab debate while enhancing their accessibility to a wider audience Power Knowledge Land takes current scholarly debates surrounding land grabs beyond their theoretical moorings in critical agrarian studies political economy and globalization into contemporary debates surrounding the politics of knowledge from theories of coloniality to ontological anthropology thereby enabling new dynamics of the phenomenon to be revealed The book deploys a pioneering epistemology integrating deconstructionist approaches to reveal the tactics truth claims and ontological assumptions of global knowledge brokers with systematic qualitative reviews and comparative study to contrast these dominant constructs with the evidence and reveal alternative ways of knowing land and practicing security from the ethnographic literature This helps to reveal the Western and modernist biases in the narratives that have been advanced about women custom and security revealing how the coloniality of knowledge works to grease the wheels of land takings by advancing highly provincialized constructs aligned with western interests as universal truths
