in the world women MacEachern's message is simple but revolutionary. If women harness the power of their purse and intentionally shift their spending money to commodities that have the greatest environmental benefit they can create a cleaner greener world. Spirited and informative this book targets twenty commodities: cars, cosmetics, coffee, food, paper, products, appliances, cleansers, and more, where women's dollars can make a dramatic difference. Provides easy-to-follow guidelines and lists so women can choose the greenest option regardless of what they're buying, along with recommended companies they should support. Encourages women to spend wisely by explaining what's worth the premium price, some green products cost what's not, and when they shouldn't spend money at all, and differentiates between products that are actually green and those that are simply marketed as ecofriendly. Whether readers want to start with small changes or are ready to devote the majority of their budget to green products, MacEachern offers concrete and immediate ways that women can take action and make a difference. Empowering and enlightening, Big Green Purse will become the green shopping bible for women everywhere who are asking, "What can I do?" The Car Book 2007 Jack Gillis, Amy Curran, David Iberkleid, 2007

Lemon-Aid Used Cars and Trucks 2010-2011 Phil Edmonston, 2010-05-11. The automotive maven and former Member of Parliament might be the most trusted man in Canada; an inverse relationship to the people he writes about. The Globe and Mail's Lemon Aid shows car and truck buyers how to pick the cheapest and most reliable vehicles from the past 30 years of auto production. This brand new edition of the bestselling guide contains updated information on secret service bulletins that can save you money. Phil describes sales and service scams, lists which vehicles are factory goofs, and sets out the prices you should pay. As Canada's automotive Dr. Phil for over 40 years, Edmonston pulls no punches. His Lemon Aid is more potent and provocative than ever.
